PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Parishioners:

This week, we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord, and with that, the Christmas season comes to an end. The next season, it seems, must be flu season! I hope all of you will stay healthy during this time.

This month of January will see some projects take place in church. I spoke briefly about these previously, but want to remind you of them once again. Beginning January 16, the pipe organ will be out of commission. It will be sealed up to protect it from infiltration of dust while the church interior is cleaned professionally during the week of January 21-25. The church cleaning will involve the removal of some pews to allow for special equipment for the cleaning of the walls and ceilings. Once the church is cleaned, the pews will be replaced. We hope that this process will be completed so that everything is back in place for the following weekend. The organ, however, will not be in service until sometime in March. Once the church cleaning is finished, the organ will be dismantled, and all the pipes and other parts thoroughly cleaned and finally reassembled. It may take some time to get the organ in reliable working order and stable tuning after the cleaning is complete. So the organ will be completely out of commission for approximately two months. We will have to make up for the absence of the organ by a fuller use of our voices to sing God's praises!

Finally, I want to give you all some advance notice of our upcoming Parish Mission. Fr. Thomas Blau, O.P., will be the Mission Director. The Parish Mission is an opportunity for spiritual renewal. Mark your calendars for March 10-13. This is when the Mission will take place. More details will be given in the coming weeks.

Your pastor,
Msgr. Moloney

Open the heavens almighty Father, and pour out your spirit upon your people. Renew the power of our baptismal cleansing and fill us with zeal for good deeds. Let us hear your voice once again, that we may recognize in your beloved Son our hope in inheriting eternal life. Grant this through Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit in the splendor of eternal light, God forever and ever.

R.C.I.A.

THIS SUNDAY at the 9:00 a.m. Mass, we will be celebrating The Rite of Acceptance, after the Liturgy of the Word. This is the first Rite for RCIA members and its purposefully made a public ritual. During this Rite, a change of identity occurs with the "inquirers" of the Catholic Faith. They will now be referred to as catechumens (not baptized) and candidates (baptized in another Christian faith). We are very happy to welcome them as disciples of faith to the Church!

Zac Brown Andy Busch Elizabeth Boring
Nick Frasier Greg Knudson Jeff McGlade
Matt Morley Justin Terman

Please take a moment to say a prayer for each of these individuals as they continue their period of conversion. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. Jeremiah 29:13
