PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Parishioners:

A little more than a week ago on Friday March 1, the Diocese of Columbus released the list of "Clergy credibly accused of sexual abuse of a minor." This has necessarily brought the issue of clergy sexual abuse, and the response of church leaders to it, once again before us. Only a few months ago, I addressed this issue in this column. As I have mentioned to you before, I serve as the "Victim's Assistance Coordinator" for the Diocese of Columbus, a position I have held since 2003. I have personally interacted with the dozens of victims of clergy sexual abuse who have bravely come forward to tell their stories of abuse, and I have sought to assist them to find closure and healing. Although the release of "the list" has occasioned many reactions and also criticism, it is my hope that having this list published and available will let other victims who may be out there to know they are not alone, and perhaps give them the courage to come forward, to report their abuse, and hopefully to find healing. If you wish to see the list of credibly accused clergy, it can be found on the Diocese of Columbus website at columbuscatholic.org. Anyone who may be a victim of clergy sexual abuse may contact me for assistance at helpisavailable@columbuscatholic.org or 614-224-2251.

Your pastor,
Msgr. Moloney

P.S. Don't forget our Parish Mission which begins today with Fr. Thomas Blau preaching at all weekend Masses.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me." (Deuteronomy 26:10) This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your "first fruits," the best that you have to offer, or do you give from what is left over? Second, do you recognize that everything you have has been given to you by God? Ask God for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances. Learn how you can be generous by supporting your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation at catholicfoundation.org/development.

Lenten Reflections on Mercy and Forgiveness

Week 1

READINGS: Deuteronomy 26:4-10; Romans 10:8-13; Luke 4:1-13

Jesus offers us spiritual strength

In this week's Gospel reading, Jesus was "led by the Spirit" (Lk 4:1) into the desert for forty days. There, he was pestered by Satan so that he could experience "every temptation" (v. 13), a truly remarkable feat by any standard.

During this time, Jesus was made acutely aware of the difficulties we experience as humans who struggle with sin. More importantly, Jesus reveals that in the face of temptations we can draw upon his grace and strength, as he himself has endured such temptations. In debating the prince of darkness, he helped us become fellow soldiers in the spiritual battle.

As we begin our Lenten journey, let us call to mind our need to be "made aware." Jesus was made aware of how difficult it is to live a holy life. We, through our sacrifices of time, talent, and treasure, are led by the Spirit to our own spiritual deserts where we can experience God's grace of mercy in the silence of our hearts.

There, and only there, can we truly become aware of our own spiritual strength.

"You shall worship the Lord, your God, / and him alone shall you serve" (Lk 4:8).

Saint

Pray contemplatively

Thomas Aquinas was a quiet man who experienced a multitude of temptations. He was a master of contemplative prayer, which led him to overcome those temptations to a heroic degree. He lived a life of intense focus, studying and pondering God, and sharing his wisdom with others in deed, speech, and writing.

As you continue your Lenten journey, spend time in contemplative prayer each day. Ponder the things of God by reading Scripture and spiritual books, and meditating on God's will for your life.

For Reflection

- › Are you aware of God's mercy in your life?
- › What temptations do you struggle with?
- › How are you preparing to enter into your spiritual desert this Lent?

Faith Lesson

Tips for seeking FORGIVENESS

► DO YOU NEED FORGIVING?

If you are aware of something you have done to harm others, try taking these first steps:

- ❑ Go to confession.
- ❑ Pray for the person you offended and ask for God to help bring peace between you both.
- ❑ Reach out to the person you offended and ask them for forgiveness.

► DO YOU NEED TO FORGIVE?

- ❑ Pray for the person who offended you and for God to help bring peace between you both.
- ❑ Reach out to the person who offended you and forgive them.

“ For the sake of his sorrowful passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world. ”

~ CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY

WORD Meanings

The word “mercy” comes from the Latin merces, which means “reward.” Mercy is God’s undeserved gift for those who show mercy. Hence, in the Lord’s Prayer we say, “Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.” May we always remember that God offers mercy to all, but it can only be accepted by those who show mercy to others.

Fasting TIPS

Offer your fasting up for someone who needs spiritual strength. Archbishop Fulton Sheen called this type of suffering a “spiritual blood transfusion” that can enliven the soul of those for whom we suffer. Think about that person every time you are tempted to break your fast. Then, overcome it and know that your efforts are making a difference with the help of the Holy Spirit.

Catechism Chat

“God created us without us: but he did not will to save us without us.’ To receive his mercy, we must admit our faults” (1847).

Holy Father, I am not perfect, but you are. Help me to become more perfect like you through your gift of mercy. May I be made worthy of such a reward by showing that same mercy to those who offend me and asking for forgiveness of those whom I have offended.

ST. STEPHEN'S COMMUNITY HOUSE – The community house is currently in need of macaroni and cheese (boxes or microwaveable cups), all forms of pastas and oatmeal (packets or canister). These items are more expensive for the pantry to purchase right now. Soups, cereals and peanut butter are always welcome as well. There is a designated area in the Parlor (end of vestibule hallway) for donations. St. Vincent de Paul appreciate the generosity of our parish in feeding the hungry.

Around the Diocese

IN RESPONSE TO THE ABUSE CRISIS – St. Thomas More Newman Center, 64 W. Lane Avenue is hosting Michael Mack's powerful one-man, 90 minute play Conversations with My Molester: A Journey of Faith on Saturday, April 6 at 7:00 p.m. Mack's boyhood dream of becoming a Catholic priest ended when his pastor first invited him to the rectory. This play is Mack's spiritual autobiography – a true story of trespass, grace, and the odyssey of healing that led him back to the Catholic Church. The prize-winning work has been praised by secular and religious sources alike. The event is free and open to the public. Note: mature themes and content. For more information, visit buckeyecatholic.com.

ODU SUMMER SCHOLARS PROGRAM – High School students graduating in 2020, 2021 or 2022 are invited to attend ODU's 5-day program from July 8-12.
