PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Parishioners:

This weekend marks the Fifth Sunday of Lent, and the final phase of the holy season, which is known as "Passiontide." During the season of Passiontide, while we continue our Lenten practices and sacrifices, we also turn our attention and devotion toward the cross of Christ. We remember with sorrow our Lord: betrayed, His crucifixion, His suffering and death. In this season, I would like to recommend to you two devotions to enhance your prayer. The first is the Stations of the Cross. There is no better way to meditate on the Lord's suffering and death, but which He made atonement for all our sins and reconciled us to God than by following the Way of the Cross. We can pray the fourteen Stations of the Cross in several ways. We can participate in the communal celebration on Friday evening here in Church; we can make the Way of the Cross on our own by quietly pausing and praying before each station during a visit to the Church. In St. Andrew Church, the 14 Stations are marked by the 14 stained glass windows on the west side of the Church. The 14 Stations are also found in an outdoor setting along the sidewalk south of the Church along Reed Road. The Stations can also be prayed anywhere it is convenient. When we pray the Stations, we strive to accompany Christ as He makes His way to Calvary, and we acclaim Him, "We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you, because by your holy cross, you have saved the world."

The other devotion I want to recommend to you during this time is the "Prayer before the Crucifix." This is a favorite of mine, which I have always used as part of my thanksgiving after receiving Holy Communion, ever since I made my First Communion. I learned this prayer from my First Communion prayer book. If you do not know it, you can find it in our hymnal in the pews on page 894. It is a beautiful prayer that asks Jesus to fill us with faith, hope and charity and a true sorrow for our sins as we tenderly contemplate His wounds. I invite you to discover the richness of this prayer during the Season of Passiontide.

Your pastor,
Msgr. Moloney

Lenten Reflections on Mercy and Forgiveness

Week 5

READINGS: Isaiah 43:16–21; Philippians 3:8–14; John 8:1–11

We are not alone

Today's Gospel calls to mind the power of community. The woman caught in the act of adultery was persecuted by the mob, thus representing the negative side of communal power. Then, Jesus incites his brilliant gift of reason into the angry mob, and, just like that, they disappear. None remain except the one sinner and her savior, the most powerful community of good that one can attain.

In Christ, we form part of the union of his greater community known as the Communion of Saints. In this group we find great holy members of the Faith like “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her”

(Jn 8:7).

St. Thérèse and St. John of the Cross as well as lesser-known inhabitants of the heavenly homeland such as deceased family members. Furthermore, this community includes us, the Church Militant, who strive for holiness as we make it through our earthly journey.

The Gospel reminds us that in our times of most need Jesus is present. Not only is he present, but so are the rest of his children, those whom we call saints. May we never forget that such a powerful community for good is constantly in our corner. We need only to call upon them for help.

Family Activity

Memories that last forever

The unity of families is the bedrock of society. Without the fusion of our family bonds, it is harder to learn how to love, serve, and appreciate the loving care of others. This week, do something special to show your family that they are loved. Write them a letter, take them out to eat, or escape on a family fun night. Do something out of the ordinary and create a memory that will last forever.

For Reflection

- How often do you call on God for spiritual guidance?
- Which saint do you most often ask for intercession?
- With whom do you share your spiritual joys and fears?

Catechism Chat

“The interior penance of the Christian can be expressed in many and various ways. Scripture and the Fathers insist above all on three forms, fasting, prayer, and almsgiving, which express conversion in relation to oneself, to God, and to others” (1434).

Fasting TIPS

If you are traveling in the spiritual desert solo, your efforts alone might not be enough to withstand temptations to break your fasting. Find an accountability partner to help motivate you — and you them — to conquer temptations. The road to salvation is best walked with the company of those we love.

Prayer

“The saints have always been the source and origin of renewal in the most difficult moments in the Church’s history.”

~ ST. JOHN PAUL II

Faith Lesson

We are “one body in Christ”

Jesus tells us that he is “the vine” and we “are the branches” (Jn 15:5). If we are not connected to him, we cannot produce good fruit. Indeed, without Jesus, we have no life within us.

The same goes for relationships. When we are closely connected to one another, the good fruits of joy, charity, and peace thrive. However, when we are angry with one another, we only reap division, injustice, and loneliness.

That is why the gift of forgiveness is so important. From God, we are forgiven of our sins and thus reconnected to his glorious power. When we forgive others their offenses, we repair his earthly body and make it stronger. We are “one body in Christ,” and it would be wise to maintain it as the unified body it was designed to be.

Blessed Trinity, God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, you are love. In your communion we see, experience, and understand love. Help me to be for others the same source of joy and mercy that you and your Communion of Saints are to me.
