PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners:

This past Tuesday (July 9) was "moving day" in the Diocese of Columbus, the day when priests who are being reassigned move to their new assignments. Six years ago on this same date, July 9, 2013, I moved into my new assignment here at St. Andrew Parish. That was an exciting and joyous day for me as I began my pastorate with great anticipation and expectation, along with a little anxiety, due to the responsibilities I would be taking on. It is hard to believe that six years have flown by since then, but those years have been very happy and fulfilling for me. Fulfilling my pastoral responsibilities, especially celebrating the Eucharist and the sacrament, preaching, providing pastoral care for the sick and dying, and encouraging all to keep the faith has been most rewarding for me. As pastor, I also have responsibility for the temporal administration of the parish. This is not something for which I have much natural ability! Fortunately, I have a lot of help in this regard. On Tuesday, July 9, there was a meeting of the St. Andrew Finance Council. The Finance Council has been an invaluable resource to me in fulfilling my responsibility for the temporal well-being of the parish. The members of the Finance Council have expertise in finance, business, and other areas, which they use to wisely promote and safeguard the temporal well-being of St. Andrew Parish. I want to make special mention of the three retiring members of the Finance Council whom we honored at our July 9 meeting: Mark Haemmerle, Tom Kasberg and Tim Terveer. I am particularly grateful for their assistance and counsel.

As I begin my second term as pastor of St. Andrew, I am still excited, honored, and very happy to serve as your pastor, and I continue to rely on the support of all of you! May God bless you and St. Andrew Parish.

Your pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney
