PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners:

This week is "Back-to-School" week. Wednesday, August 21, is the First Day of School at St. Andrew School. I want to welcome all new and returning students as they begin a new year of learning. May it be a year blessed with growth "in wisdom, age, and grace." I wish all members of the St. Andrew School family a happy, successful and safe year. The beginning of school is always a time of anticipation and optimism, and I wish all those beginning a new school year much fulfillment and satisfaction in the discovery of new things and finding your potential.

I want to express my thanks to all of you who have expressed your support and offered your prayers for me because of my increased work load, which I told you about two weeks ago. I was greatly touched by your kindness and understanding, which I hope will continue. So far, things are going pretty well. I believe that once I get used to the new routine, I will manage everything just fine. Of course, I have to be flexible in order to respond to emergencies and other surprises.

Speaking of thanks, I also want to thank everyone involved for another great Festival at St. Andrew!

Your pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney
