PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners,

In this month of November, the church honors and remembers "those who have gone before us, marked with the sign of faith." We pray for our deceased loved ones and all of the "faithful departed." I thought perhaps that this month would be a good time to say a few words about the Catholic Funeral Rites.

A funeral is not an everyday event for most people. But sooner or later a death occurs in our family or to someone close to us. We may have the solemn responsibility of making funeral arrangements and planning a funeral liturgy. A Catholic funeral expresses the faith of the Church in the victory of Jesus over sin and death. In every Mass, we proclaim the "mystery of faith"; "We proclaim your death O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again." "In the face of death, the Church confidently proclaims that God has created each person for eternal life and that Jesus, the Son of God, by His death and resurrection, has broken the chains of sin and death." (Order of Funerals, #1).

A Catholic funeral focuses on the death and Resurrection of Christ, and not just a "celebration of life" of the deceased one. This is why the Church generally discourages eulogizing the deceased. The funeral should express our hope and our trust in God who is merciful, asking God to forgive the sins of the deceased and receive him/her into the heavenly Kingdom. The funeral is usually celebrated with a Mass, because the Mass celebrates the paschal mystery of Christ's death and Resurrection. The mourners are consoled and comforted by receiving the Lord in Holy Communion. At the funeral Mass, the body of the deceased is honored: it is sprinkled with holy water and covered with the white pall to recall the Sacrament of Baptism. The body is incensed at the final commendation, and then taken to its place of rest, preferably in a dedicated Catholic cemetery. While cremation is permitted by the Church, burial of the body is still preferred, as the Lord Jesus' body was laid in the tomb from which He was raised up on the third day.

I hope these few brief reflections on the Catholic funeral may help you to appreciate its meaning the next time you participate in one.

May all of the faithful departed rest in peace.

Your pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney

MASS INTENTIONS – Having a Mass said for a departed friend or family member can be a very special gift. If you would like to have a Mass said for the intention of a loved one in 2019, please contact Kelly Nasdeo at the Parish Office at 614-451-4290 or knasdeo@standrewparish.cc.

What is R.C.I.A.? The Rite of Catholic Initiation for Adults is a program offered for non-Catholics who may want to join the Catholic Church as well as for Catholics who are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith. Sessions include prayer, fellowship and instruction on topics such as Who is Jesus, The Sacraments, Faith and Catholic Morality. Adult Catholics who have not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation are also invited to participate. We are looking for parishioners who are willing to serve as sponsors. For more information and to reserve your seat today, contact the R.C.I.A. team at rcia@standrewparish.cc or call Maggie McGlade at 216-470-8237. Classes are at 7:00 p.m. and meet each Wednesday through Easter.

ARE YOU HOMEBOUND OR IN THE NURSING HOME and would like to have Communion brought to you? Perhaps you would like a visit from a priest for an Anointing of the Sick or Confession. We have an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion Homebound Ministry that will bring Communion to you if needed. The priests will also visit the homebound upon request. To make arrangements, please call the Parish Office at 614-451-4290.

“Long have I waited for your coming home to me and living deeply our new life.”

Adoration takes place in the Church on Tuesday evenings from 6:00-9:00 p.m. followed by Benediction and Compline. On the first Tuesday of each month, Confessions will also be available from 7:30 p.m.-8:30 p.m.

Around the Diocese

EGAN-RYAN FUNERAL HOME is sponsoring their 5th annual Veteran's Day Food Drive to help our local needy Veterans and their families. Join with them in giving thanks to our Vets and donate to their Veterans Day Food Drive. Nonperishable food items, personal care items and monetary donations can be dropped off at either of Egan-Ryan's two locations at 403 E. Broad Street or 4461 Kenny Road Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. beginning November 1st through 8th and on Veterans Day, November 11th. Call 614-221-6665 with questions.

The National Collection for the Archbishop for the Military Services, USA (AMS) is TODAY, November 10, 2019. The AMS provides the full range of pastoral ministries to those serving (and their families) in the U.S. Armed Services, enrolled in U.S. Military Academies, undergoing treatment at Veteran Affairs Medical Centers and working in civilian jobs for the federal government beyond U.S. borders. Envelopes are available in the parlor. Make checks payable to St. Andrew Parish with AMS and envelope number in the memo section.

St. Stephen's pantry serves 900 families a month from eight Franklin County zip codes. Current requests are items from the GRAINS group including breakfast cereals, pastas, rice, noodles, macaroni and cheese and oatmeal. Please put donated items in the cupboard marked St. Stephen's in the Parlor and a St. Vincent de Paul member will deliver them. Thank you for your support.

Bimonthly Mass and Healing Service on November 18, 6:30 p.m., St. Joseph Cathedral:

Following the Mass of the Day, a Healing Service will begin with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Veneration of relics of the True Cross. Each person will then have an opportunity to speak individually with one of several priests present to discuss their particular situation and receive a prayer of healing. The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick will also be available for Catholics who are seriously ill. The Healing Service will conclude with Benediction. All persons who seek Christ's healing are invited, especially those who suffer with addictions, mental health issues, physical illness and infirmities in addition to those who seek emotional and spiritual healing. All caregivers, family members, and members of the medical community are invited as well. Secured parking is available off East Gay Street; handicapped elevator access to the Cathedral is located off the Broad Street Courtyard. For more information, call (614) 224-1295 or visit www.saintjosephcathedral.org.
