PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners,

I wonder if you noticed over the past month the ushers at weekend Masses counting the number of people at Mass? You may not have noticed – they are very discreet! But each year, all parishes in the diocese participate in the “October Count.” This count is used to determine an average Mass attendance for each parish, and to show trends and patterns in parishes around the Diocese. We have completed the October Count for St. Andrew Parish for this year and submitted the figures to the Diocesan office. You may be interested to know what our October Count is. Our combined average Mass attendance for all 5 weekend Masses this year was 1,466. That is 125 fewer people than just one year ago (count in 2018 was 1,591) and more than 350 less people than 4 years ago (count in 2015 was 1,807).

Unfortunately, this reflects a trend that is observed all across the Diocese going back decades. Every year, Mass attendance decreases somewhat. This is true even when the number of registered parishioners goes up. This has been going on for a long time. You may be surprised to know that 25 years ago, in 1994, the average weekend Mass attendance at St. Andrew was 3,528. Our attendance has declined in 25 years by more than the number of our total October count for 2019. (Between 1994 and 2019, we have lost 2,062 in average attendance. As noted above, our 2019 average attendance is just 1,466.) Over the last several years, I have noticed how empty the church is at some of our weekend Masses. This year, the average attendance at the 10:30 a.m. Mass (the Mass with the largest attendance) is less than 400. The average attendance at the Noon Mass is just 298. St. Andrew church is built to accommodate a congregation of over 1,000 persons seated in the pews.

This brings me to something that I have been thinking about for well over a year now. I believe the time has come to change our Sunday Mass schedule and reduce the number of Weekend Masses from 5 to 4. I have brought this idea to the Parish Council and the Liturgy Committee who have supported this proposal. I want to take time to prepare for such a change and I would like to get some input from you, the parishioners, before implementing such a change. I would like you to think about the possibility of a weekend Mass schedule to be implemented in the first quarter of 2020, which includes these Masses:

Saturday – 4:30 p.m. (no change)

Sunday– 7:30 a.m. (no change), 9:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m.

Is this something you could adjust to? Do you see any particular problems or obstacles? I am very interested in your comments and suggestions. And, of course, I will keep you informed as we prepare to make any changes. Thank you for your attention to this and for your thoughts and ideas.

Your pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney
