Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday is the First Sunday of Lent. I hope that your Lent is off to a good start. I hope that each one of you is striving to draw close to God in this season, that He may draw close to you.

This first week of Lent is a busy one at St. Andrew Parish. The RCIA class will be undergoing the Rite of Election on Sunday, celebrated by Bishop Brennan. Those preparing to receive the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil begin the final stage of purification and penance. They are called "the elect" because they have been chosen to be saved by Christ and fully incorporated with the Body of Christ through the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. Also on Sunday, our 8th Grade Confirmation Class will be having their retreat as they prepare to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation next Sunday, March 8th. Bishop Brennan will be present here at St. Andrew to confirm these young people. The Confirmation Class will be rehearsing for the Confirmation Ceremony on Tuesday evening, March 3rd in the church. Therefore, Eucharistic Adoration that evening will take place in the chapel.

On Friday of this week (March 6), the St. Andrew Fish Fry will take place. Since the Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence, when all Catholics are obliged to abstain from eating meat, what better way could there be to keep this law than by enjoying the delicious and plentiful offerings at the St. Andrew Fish Fry!

As I said, this will be a busy and eventful week. May it also be a prayerful and grace-filled week in which you can draw closer to God through spiritual awareness and self-denial. Happy First Week of Lent!

Your Pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney

Jesus Offers Us an Example for Resisting Temptation

In Scripture, forty symbolizes a time of waiting and preparing. Jesus' response to the desert temptations presents three excellent examples of how we can fight temptation in our lives. In today's Gospel (Mt 4:1-11), we witness the faith-strengthening power of fasting, Scripture, and prayer. In the desert, Jesus empties himself physically with a forty-day fast and in turn is strengthened spiritually. He retreats to be alone with his Father, nourished only by communion with his Father, in preparation for his upcoming mission. Jesus roots his ministry — in fact, his entire existence — in prayer.

Lent is our desert. It is our forty days of waiting and preparing and is much more than a test to see how long we can hold out from chocolate.

FOR REFLECTION

- Jesus retreated from the busyness of his daily life for prayer. Are you able to find time during this Lent to fast from some of your activities to give God your undivided attention?
- Do you include solitude, fasting, and Scripture in your prayer time?
- How can prayer help you with the temptations you most often succumb to?

late. Lent is an opportunity to practice using the gifts of our faith to avoid the many temptations we face each day. The Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving offer a foundation upon which we can build a solid faith. We, too, are called to empty ourselves physically through fasting to make room to be nourished by the loving, merciful presence of God in our lives. We also are being prepared for a mission. Strengthened by this Lenten season, we are to go forth and share the Good News.

After forty days and nights of fasting, Jesus is hungry, but not just for food. Remember, the Spirit has led him into a period of preparation for ministry. Jesus will begin preaching in Galilee upon returning from the desert. He emerges hungry to share his message of love and mercy, the Good News of redemption and salvation.

Jesus' weapon against the lies and snares of the devil?

The Word of God, sharper than any two-edged sword (see Heb 4:12). The exchange between Jesus and the devil illustrates not only strength the faithful can draw from for spiritual battle in the Word, but also the great importance of understanding the meaning of each Scripture.

The Prince of Lies twists Scripture for his own advantage, but Jesus, empowered through fasting and prayer, sees clearly through each temptation and orders Satan away. He emerges from the experience ready to begin spreading the Good News.

Where will the next forty days bring you? Will you, too, at the end of your period of waiting and preparation be strengthened by prayer, fasting, and the Scriptures, to avoid temptation?

There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot solve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary.

— SISTER LUCIA, FÁTIMA SEER

Don't Know How to Pray?

Prayer can be an intimidating word. Some people worry they don't pray enough; others feel they aren't saying their prayers correctly. The bad news: You probably are not praying enough. But this problem is easier to solve than you think. We can pray while commuting to work or school, folding the laundry, even during our recreation. St. Paul instructs us to "pray without ceasing" (1 Thes 5:17), meaning, throughout the day, all day. The good news: The only wrong way to pray is not to pray at all. Prayer can be formal or informal, it should flow from your heart.

St. John Damascene wrote, "Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God" (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2559). There is a Catholic tradition to help us remember the four types of prayers we can offer to God, through the acronym ACTS.

A
Adoration      C
Contrition      T
Thanksgiving      S
Supplication

We'll be looking at each one of these prayer offerings throughout the coming weeks of Lent.

Prayer

Lord Jesus, to prepare for your mission as Savior, you first retreated to fast and pray. Tempted by the devil, you did not fall for his distortion of the Word. Instead, you allowed the truth of the Word to cut through the lies and warded off all temptation. May I follow your remarkable example to be strengthened in faith through prayer, fasting, and the Scriptures throughout this Lent and for the rest of my life.

Never Too Busy to Pray

St. Francis de Sales believed that every person has a call to holiness. He gave spiritual direction to many lay men and women through letters. His preaching, teaching, and priestly duties kept him incredibly busy. St. Francis, however, knew that, regardless of how busy he became, prayer needed to be at the center of his life. He taught, "Every one of us needs half an hour of prayer a day, except when we are busy — then we need an hour."

CATECHISM CONNECTION

"Where does prayer come from? Whether prayer is expressed in words or gestures, it is the whole man who prays. But in naming the source of prayer, Scripture speaks sometimes of the soul or the spirit, but most often of the heart (more than a thousand times). According to Scripture, it is the heart that prays. If our heart is far from God, the words of prayer are in vain."

— Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2562

FirstSunday IN LENT

March 1, 2020

1st Sunday of Lent

"It is written: The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve." Matthew 4:10

Tempted between the riches and power of this world and service to God, Jesus chose service to His Father. If we wish to truly follow Jesus, we, too, must decide to turn away from worldly power and riches and put God at the center of our lives. Lent is our time to prune ourselves of earthly things. Ask God how He is calling you to serve.

St. Andrew Lenten Almsgiving Project

St. Andrew's Society of St. Vincent de Paul invites you to take part in our Lenten Almsgiving Project to benefit the Joint Organization for Inner-City Needs (J.O.I.N.)

Take a purple bag from a church entrance. On the bag is a list of personal hygiene items which are needed by homeless individuals in Columbus. Please fill the bag with the items listed and return the bag to the purple bin in the church parlor any day during Lent. We will deliver all the items to J.O.I.N. where they will be distributed to those in need.

Almsgiving: giving money to the poor and performing other acts of charity; one of the three pillars of Lent; a work of justice pleasing to God.

— Catechism of the Catholic Church

Stations of The Cross

Fridays during Lent - 7:30 p.m.

Adoration - 7:30 p.m. - 8:45 p.m.
Reconciliation - 8:00 p.m.
Benediction 8:45 p.m.

When bringing up the offertory gifts at Mass, the bearers of the gifts are a representation of the people in the parish for that Mass and, to a fuller extent, the members of the whole church. If you would like to participate in the Mass in this special way, please mention this to one of the ushers before Mass.

RESOLVE TO LIVE A MORE HOLY LiFE

Make a careful examination of conscience every day and put in place specific plans for how you will overcome sinful habits.

PRAY... A LOT

Commit to praying more this Lent. If you need help, get a devotional or spend some time reading Scripture.

MAKE SOME SACRiFICES

Making even small sacrifices for God show him that we love him. They can also help make you more holy!

THINKING OF WAYS TO BECOME INVOLVED IN THE PARISH?

We are in need of people to act as greeters before the 4:30 p.m., 10:30 a.m. and Noon Masses (the last two will merge into a single 11:00 a.m. on April 19th)

Job Description: arrive 15 minutes prior to Mass and say hello to fellow Mass goers as they enter the church. A friendly welcoming face to greet parishioners and guests is a great way to meet new people and be a steward of liturgical ministry. If interested in being put on the schedule, please contact Kent Simmons at simmonsken0@gmail.com.

For all Lectors & Extraordinary Ministers – Regarding Scheduling for Mass Time Changes Beginning April 19th:

If you have traditionally served at the 10:30 a.m. or 12:00 p.m. Masses, both Masses will be combined into the Mass at 11:00 a.m. If you have either the 10:30 a.m. or 12:00 p.m. Masses as one of your preferences, you will be automatically moved to the 11:00 a.m. Mass unless you login to your profile and choose one of the other Masses (4:30 p.m. Vigil, 7:30 a.m., 9:15 a.m.)
