Prayer during this time of COVID-19 outbreak as published on the USCCB website usccb.org/news/2020/20-44.cfm

"United with our Holy Father Pope Francis, let us pray in solidarity for our brothers and sisters here and around the world who are sick. Let us pray for those who have lost loved ones to this virus. May God console them and grant them peace.

We pray also for doctors, nurses, and caregivers, for public health officials and all civic leaders. May God grant them courage and prudence as they seek to respond to this emergency with compassion and in service to the common good.

In this time of need, I invite all the faithful to seek together the maternal intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, and I share this prayer with you." Archbishop José H. Gomez

*Holy Virgin of Guadalupe,
Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.
We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.*

*Pray for us, loving Mother,
and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.*

*For those already afflicted,
we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful,
wipe away their tears and help them to trust.*

*In this time of trial and testing,
teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind. Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.*

*We come to you with confidence,
knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother,
health of the sick and cause of our joy.*

*Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus. Amen.*

While Masses are not able to be celebrated publicly, our priests are offering Mass privately and are fulfilling the Mass intention of each Mass. The church remains closed during these privately celebrated Masses.

SUNDAY OFFERTORY

	March 8, 2020	YTD
Actual	$27,523	$1,331,335
Budget	$29,400	$1,369,575
Last Year	$33,270	$1,363,967

As you know, the current times are challenging for all of us, including our own parish. We rely on your generous stewardship, in good times and in bad, to meet all of our financial responsibilities. The Sunday collection is the principal source of our income that pays for maintenance, utilities, insurance and the salaries and benefits for our parish and school staff. We assure you that we are prudently planning to reduce expenses until life gets back to normal.

We currently have over 450 parishioners who give electronically. Please consider using our electronic giving program (osvonlinegiving.com/4150). You can also find a link on our parish website. We encourage envelope users to mail your Sunday offertory envelopes to the parish office or sign up for your bank's online bill pay service. Thank you for support of the mission and ministry of St. Andrew Parish.

At the same time, we ask you to be aware of scams. We remind you that we will not be reaching out to you for donations via email, text or phone calls. Please contact us if you receive something that looks suspicious and do not give any financial information out over the phone.

The Blessing of a Thankful Heart

In today's Gospel, the disciples questioned Jesus if sin caused the man's blindness. Did he or someone in his family warrant this punishment by their offense to God? The disciples listened and accepted Jesus' explanation that the man's lack of sight was not due to sin but instead was to show the glory of God. Meanwhile, the Pharisees refused to accept Jesus' teaching and in essence became the blind ones. Ironically, their inability to see could be directly attributed to sin — specifically, the sin of pride.

They refused to believe in the miracle which had occurred right before them and would never be able to see the miracles Jesus could perform in their lives. Their metaphorical blindness remained because they were unwilling to believe in any truth other than their own. Jesus has the power and authority to open anyone's eyes, to break through anyone's darkness, but first we have to be willing to see.

Sometimes we face circumstances truly beyond our control, which make

FOR REFLECTION

- Make a list of all the things you are grateful for. Spend time in prayer thanking God for each one.
- In difficult situations, are you able to recognize reasons to be thankful?
- What burdens keep you free from embracing a hope-filled life in Christ?

us wonder what we've done to be abandoned by God or what may have angered him. It is imperative to understand an important truth about God: He does not bring hardships; these exist as a result of the Fall in the Garden of Eden. God has given each of us free will so that we may be able to freely choose to enter into a relationship with him — one based on love, not coercion.

Trusting in God's promises that "all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose" (Rom 8:28), or that "for human beings this is impossible, but for God all things are possible" (Mt 19:26), can be difficult in the midst of a tragedy, trial, or difficulty. However, one who continues to pray in thanksgiving maintains a grateful heart and remains hopeful, like the man born blind. Although Jesus' method of curing the man's blindness may have seemed strange, the man, thankful for a chance at healing, followed Jesus' instructions.

Lent is the perfect time to rub mud in our eyes, figuratively speaking, and allow Jesus to heal our spiritual blindness. Whether currently struggling through a difficult time, or scars from past battles that are hard to forget, prayers of thanksgiving can mold those experiences into blessings. Clarity of vision of the cumulative experiences in our lives belong only with God; apart from him, we will never make sense of them. Remaining close, thankful, and open to seeing his hand in all that happens in the world, keeps our hearts safeguarded from growing hard. Lent is a time to reflect on what blinds us from saying, "Lord, I believe," and a time to refocus on following the Light of the World.

PRAYER TIP

When do you find time for prayer within a typically busy day? Some days do not lend themselves to dedicated or uninterrupted prayer time. Instead of skipping prayer, find ways to build it into the things you are already doing. Here are a few suggestions:

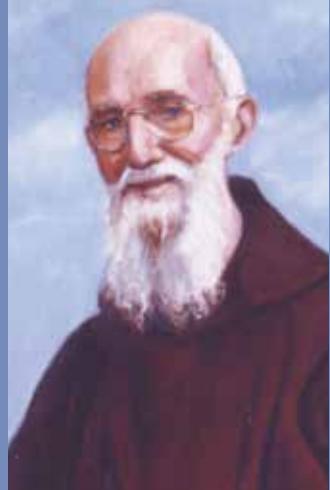

- Use your morning coffee time to read a Scripture verse.
- Recite the Rosary on your drive to work.
- Bring joy to your chores by thanking God for the food that dirtied the dishes, the clothes that now fill the hamper, and a floor that requires vacuuming.
- Offer a Hail Mary while brushing your teeth.
- Pray before (and even after) each meal.

“Give thanks to the Lord ...
whose love endures forever.”

— 1 CHRONICLES 16:34

Thank God Ahead

Blessed Solanus Casey was a simple Capuchin friar from Oak Grove, Wisconsin. Blessed Solanus is an extraordinary example of how a person can foster devout faith amid an ordinary life. Through his many hardships, he learned the blessing of maintaining a heart of gratitude, regardless of current circumstances. Solanus often counseled people to consider the good God would do in the future for them, and to “Thank God ahead of time!”

Painting by Nancy Denby Gaertt

Prayer

Lord Jesus, may I remember each day this Lent to thank you for each blessing and each cross. May the devotion I offer you be from a place of great love and not hinge on my happiness, but instead on the blessed hope found in Easter. Our blessings are abundant; so should our thanks to the One who bestows them. Lord, this week, I will pray without ceasing, giving thanks in all circumstances.

CATECHISM CONNECTION

“The inexhaustible richness of [the Eucharist] is expressed in the different names we give it. Each name evokes certain aspects of it. It is called:

“Eucharist, because it is an action of thanksgiving to God. The Greek words eucharistein and eulogein recall the Jewish blessings that proclaim — especially during a meal — God’s works: creation, redemption, and sanctification.”

— Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1328

“Thanksgiving characterizes the prayer of the Church which, in celebrating the Eucharist, reveals and becomes more fully what she is. Indeed, in the work of salvation, Christ sets creation free from sin and death to consecrate it anew and make it return to the Father, for his glory. The thanksgiving of the members of the Body participates in that of their Head.

— Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2637

Dear Parishioners,

As I write to you this week, all of us find ourselves in a strange and unfamiliar world. The world as we know it has been turned upside down. This week, the Bishops of Ohio, in response to the growing threat of the Coronavirus, have suspended all public Masses and liturgies, at least through Holy Week and Easter. This is something completely unprecedented and most uncomfortable. The dangerous Coronavirus is very contagious and spreads easily in gatherings of people, so all gatherings of more than a few people must be avoided. The suspension of public Masses is absolutely necessary to stem the spread of the virus, but not having the assembly of God's people present in church leaves me feeling disoriented, lost and sad. I can only imagine how you feel. We must endure this time when we are deprived of the consolation of gathering together for Mass and pray that God may hasten the day when the emergency has passed.

I do want to assure you that the priests of St. Andrew are offering Mass privately and we are fulfilling the Mass intentions which have been requested for each Mass. I urge everyone to unite themselves spiritually with the celebration of the Mass, even though you are not able to be present and may not actually receive the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Offer to God your prayers, works, joys and sufferings of each day "in union with the holy sacrifice of the Mass." Make an act of "Spiritual Communion." Remember that the priest who is celebrating the Mass is your representative before God. He "goes up to the altar of God" like Moses went up on Mount Sinai while the people stayed behind. Please know that our priests are remembering you at the altar. It is important that even though you cannot attend Mass or receive Communion on Sunday, and while the obligation continues to be dispensed, it is still important to "keep holy the Lord's day," especially through prayer. I urge you to spend time in prayer, to read and reflect upon the Sunday readings, to watch televised broadcasts of the Mass and use other resources to unite yourself and your family to the celebration of the Mass. Please remember to use the resources on the FORMED website (standrewcolumbus.FORMED.org) which all St. Andrew parishioners are entitled to use for free. There are many resources for all ages. Also, please don't forget to support St. Andrew Parish. There can be no Sunday collection during this time, but our expenses do continue.

Please be aware that Baptisms, Weddings, Funerals and Confessions can be done during this time, but not in the usual manner. The number of persons permitted to be present for Baptisms, Funerals or Weddings is strictly limited. Confessions are possible for individuals upon request, but communal Penance Services are not being offered. Sacramental visits are only done for those who are in danger because of their health or are dying. Because of the danger of spreading the virus, ordinary routine visits to the homebound to bring Holy Communion are suspended. All other parish meetings, classes, gatherings and social events are suspended for the duration of this emergency.

The church will be open for prayer and devotion Monday-Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., and Sunday from 12:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. The church will be closed on Saturday. The church must remain locked during the hours when the priests are offering Mass in private.

Please see the list of resources elsewhere in this bulletin and other information that may be helpful. I look forward to the day when we will be reunited before the altar of God in our beautiful church of St. Andrew. Until then, may God protect you from all harm and keep you healthy and strong.

Your Pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney

For Your Information

Below is a small listing of some resources you can turn to during the suspension of publicly celebrated Mass.

- ◆ Daily Mass readings can be found on the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website):

Or at Magnificat website:

us.magnificat.net

- ◆ Mass is streamed online (with Mass readings) at EWTN website. EWTN offers the daily readings to enable viewers to accompany the Mass of the day as it is televised. This is also the perfect way to find time in your day for spiritual reflection. Listen, watch, or read from the comfort of your home. Their Catholic Daily Reading includes the readings of the day, along with online videos, and is a resource for all who desire to live a life of faith that is pleasing to our Lord."

*Act of Spiritual Communion written by
St. Alphonsus de Liguori:*

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

*Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*
