LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners:

One afternoon this past week, I was praying Vespers from the Liturgy of the Hours. I happened to be sitting outside in the back yard of the rectory as I was praying. It was a beautiful October day. The sun was shining, the sky was blue, and the leaves on the trees were showing their autumn colors as they rustled in the breeze. As a priest, I have an obligation to pray the Liturgy of the Hours or the "Divine Office" every day, and I usually pray the evening portion around 5:00 p.m. in the afternoon, after I come back to St. Andrew's from my work at the Chancery of the Diocese. That little period of prayer and rest is a refreshing pause in the busy day. On this particular day, however, I noticed that, as I was praying, I frequently looked up at the sky. That is not unusual, of course, but I became aware of something that I do unconsciously, and began to reflect upon it. I thought about the fact that the Gospels tell us that when Jesus prayed, He "raised His eyes to heaven." Jesus taught us to pray to "Our Father who art in heaven." When Jesus ascended into heaven, He was lifted up and disappeared behind a cloud, and His disciples continued to stare at the sky. Heaven is God's dwelling, and although we know that heaven is not located somewhere in the sky in our universe, nevertheless, heaven is "above" so it is appropriate that we look upwards "to heaven" when we pray.

I also reflected that I was truly in a sacred place as I was praying beneath the sky, because I was looking up at God's dwelling, His sanctuary. When I am in church praying, I am in God's house, His dwelling, and I am aware of the Lord's true presence in the Tabernacle. But even away from church, I am in the presence of God, and I am reminded of this whenever I raise my eyes to heaven.

I share this with you today in case you may find it helpful in your own habits of prayer.

May God bless you and protect you all your days!

Your Pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney

Thank you to the 377 families who have responded to the 2020 Bishop's Annual Appeal.

These generous pledges total $197,518 towards our Diocesan goal of $210,135. This means we are within 5% of our goal with only 18% of our Parishioners responding.

If you have not yet made your gift to this year's appeal, please prayerfully consider doing so in the days ahead. Pledge envelopes are available in the church main vestibule and NW entrance or you can go online to www.columbuscatholicgiving.org/make-a-gift-now and donate directly. If you would like a pledge envelope mailed to you, please email Ann Whiteman at awhiteman@standrewparish.cc.

Gifts received over our goal will be returned to St. Andrew Parish and are not subject to the Diocesan Assessment. Thank you for your generosity.

Send to St. Andrew Parish 1899 McCoy Road, Columbus, OH 43220. St. Andrew Parish would like to thank the increasing number of families who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the basket every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed in our parish office. Not only does it allow us to process the contributions quickly, but no physical contact is required. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program. THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is "Jackie" and as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat. A couple of weeks ago, I was meowing to you about how much God wants you to meow...err...to talk to Him all the time. And when we talk to God, and when we listen to God, we call that "prayer." That's right. I said that some prayers we say are those that we memorize – or know by heart – like the "Our Father" or the "Hail Mary." But did you know that God also wants you to use your own words when you pray? That's right! As the saints tell us, God is already waiting for you to begin a conversation with Him at any time.

When we talk to God using our own words, we call that a special type of prayer known as "meditation"! In meditation, you can say anything you want to God based on your experiences today, or based on something you read in the Bible, or something you heard at Mass. But what's also really important in meditation is making time to LISTEN to what God wants to say to you in your heart. You won't necessarily hear God meowing...err...speaking in a loud voice, but God will often give you things in your heart like encouragement, peace and love.

But you have to be quiet to pick up on those graces God wants to give you. That can be tough sometimes. I know. I am a cat. I meow and chirp and purr so much, that I sometimes forget to be quiet and soak in the love God has for me in peace and silence. Why not take a few minutes today and do meditation: tell God, in your own words, both a joy and a struggle that you are experiencing and then be quiet for a little while and listen for what God is trying to say to your heart!

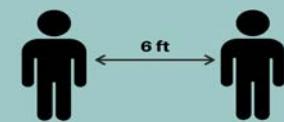

Right now, I am hearing a message that it is dinnertime, but I'm pretty sure that's a voice coming from Father Ferguson and not from God. So, gotta go! Stay holy and have a "purr"-fect week!

ST. ANDREW CHRISTMAS MASS SURVEY

Dear Parishioners,

It's hard to believe that Fall is here, and we need to begin planning for the Christmas Masses. The Liturgy Committee is requesting your input to help determine the Christmas Mass schedule.

Assuming the COVID-19 pandemic restrictions are still in place with social distancing protocols, continued use of masks, and the obligation to attend Mass being dispensed, please complete the brief survey below to help us understand how many people may attend these Masses as we attempt to prepare the safest possible experience for all. This year's Christmas Masses will be celebrated in a simpler, yet dignified manner, missing some of the festive elements that we've come to expect, like choristers and choir.

Please complete only one survey per family and include as accurate a count of attendees as possible. You can complete this form and return it (see return options below) or visit www.standrewparish.cc to complete the online survey (please do not complete both online and paper surveys).

1. What is your preferred Christmas Mass (please select one)?

4:00 P.M. Christmas Eve 9:00 A.M. Christmas
 6:00 P.M. Christmas Eve 11:00 A.M. Christmas
 10:00 P.M. Christmas Eve Will not attend/will attend elsewhere

2. How many members of your immediate and extended family would likely attend the above-referenced Mass, seated in the same pew? _____

3. Given the social distancing concerns, if the St. Andrew sanctuary cannot accommodate all wishing to attend a particular Mass, necessitating holding a separate Mass in the gym, would you be willing to participate? Yes _____ No _____

4. If it becomes necessary to implement a sign-up or registration process for specific Masses, would you be willing to participate? Yes _____ No _____

Complete and return the survey by October 26, 2020 using one of the following methods:

- By email to liturgy@standrewparish.cc.
- By mail to the Parish Office, 1899 McCoy Rd, Columbus, OH 43220.
- Drop off in the collection basket or in the box in the vestibule of the church.

If you have any questions, contact Monsignor Moloney, (614) 451-4290, ext 101, or email the St. Andrew Liturgy Committee, liturgy@standrewparish.cc.
