LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners:

This weekend, we celebrate the Second Sunday of Advent. By now, your preparations for Christmas are no doubt well under way. We are busy preparing for Christmas also here at St. Andrew Parish – a most unusual Christmas to say the least. Last week, we launched our online reservation calendar to reserve the limited available seats for in-person Mass attendance at our Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Masses. As already announced, in-person attendance at Christmas Masses is by reservation only because we must limit the number of people because of COVID-19 precautions. Within hours, the available spaces for the 4:00 p.m. Christmas Eve Vigil Mass in church were all taken. However, as of this writing, there are still many spaces available at the other scheduled Masses. Because of the very serious surge in the spread of the Coronavirus, I want to repeat my advice for all to consider very carefully your decisions regarding attending Mass in person at this time, especially if you are more at risk because of age or illness. Please consider joining our Christmas Masses, and all our other services, via livestream at www.standrewparishlive.com. Our new camera is up and working, and the quality of these virtual services is greatly improved. Most importantly, it is much safer, especially as the virus spreads. If you are planning to attend Christmas Mass in person, be sure to reserve your places soon, before they are gone.

This week, we celebrate two holy days in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Tuesday, Dec. 8, is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. This is also our national feast day. We will have Mass on the vigil of this feast, Monday, Dec. 7, at 7:00 p.m., and on the feast day itself at 6:30 and 8:30 a.m., and 12:15 p.m. The 8:30 a.m. Mass will be livestreamed. The obligation to attend Mass on this feast has been dispensed because of the Coronavirus, so attendance is optional.

Saturday, Dec. 12, is the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. This feast will be observed at our regular 9:00 a.m. Mass on Saturday.

During this season of Advent, let us continue to prepare our hearts to welcome the Lord when He comes!

Your Pastor
Msgr. Stephan Moloney

Send to St. Andrew Parish, 1899 McCoy Rd., Columbus OH 43220.

St. Andrew Parish would like to thank the increasing number of families who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the basket every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed in our parish office. Not only does it allow us to process the contributions quickly, but no physical contact is required. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program. If you would like to learn more about this easy, safe and secure way of giving, please visit Our Sunday Visitor at osvonlinegiving.com/4150. If you need help getting started, please do not hesitate to call our Business Manager, Ann Whiteman, at 614-451-4290 ex 102 or via email at awhiteman@standrewparish.cc.

With the Christmas season fast approaching, please consider making a year-end gift to the appeal. To donate directly, go to the Diocesan website at: www.columbuscatholicgiving.org/make-a-gift-now.

You can also send a check directly to St. Andrew Parish with BAA marked in the memo section. Please pray for the success of the Appeal and remember no amount of giving is too small. Thank you for your generosity.

THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is "Jackie," and as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat! Did you know that this Tuesday is a super special day for us Catholics? That's right! This Tuesday is December 8, and every year, that is a special day called the "Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary"! Wow...that's a mouthful!

Do you know who St. Mary is? She is the mother of Jesus! St. Mary gave birth to Jesus on Christmas night in a cave in Bethlehem (that's what Christmas is all about!) with St. Joseph there along with the shepherds and all the nearby animals like the cattle, sheep, goats, and all the kitty cats. Because of that, St. Mary is a really, really special lady. She is so special that years earlier, when Mary herself came into this world as a tiny infant in the womb of her own mother (that's St. Anne!), St. Mary started out from the very first moment of her existence (that's the moment of her "conception") as really, really, really holy. "Immaculate" means really "clean," like when your parents tell you to clean your room and "make it immaculate"! So, that's what the "Immaculate Conception" means: St. Mary's soul was really clean and holy and without any "original sin" from the get-go. The rest of us get to become that holy when we are baptized, but Mary was given a special privilege by God because she would grow up to become the mother of Jesus! Wow!

So, this Tuesday, we get to celebrate Mary's "Immaculate Conception." It's a chance to say thank you to our Mother Mary for being such a great mother to Jesus, for helping us to become more holy, and giving US motherly care, too. Why not take a few moments this Tuesday and pray to Mary and tell her how much we love her, and to thank her for her love for us (and also for the love she showed her Son Jesus and all those kitty cats who were there to watch His birth on Christmas Night)! Stay holy and have a "purr"-fect week!

INESCAPABLE QUESTIONS, FORMIDABLE ANSWER

Reflection on Mark 1:1-8

The scholar, Huston Smith, observes that at every time in human history, and in every place, people have found themselves faced with three inescapable questions: How to win food and shelter, which is the problem that the natural world poses; How to get along with one another, which is the social problem; and, How to relate themselves to the total scheme of things, which is the religious problem. (see: Why Religion Matters, The Fate of the Human Spirit in an Age of Disbelief).

Whether we look far or near, we will see hunger and homelessness, division and acrimony, confusion and clashing religious views. To place these questions in the context of our Catholic sensibility, Christ is still present in the needs of the least among us, Christ's body is still divided, and Christ still hangs on the cross. Such is our present landscape, the wilderness in which we live together.

"Preparing the way of the Lord" in this wilderness involves not only our own personal repentance and conversion, but also, as Isaiah suggests, some major road construction: creating a highway through the desert, filling in valleys and leveling mountains, smoothing rugged land and rough country. In other words, mindfully and intentionally "bringing comfort to God's people" through our efforts at caring for the most vulnerable, bringing understanding and reconciliation to relationships broken and in discord, and heroically evangelizing to prepare the world for the Prince of Peace.

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

Feast Day: December 12 • Patron Saint of the Americas, Mexico

The feast in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe goes back to the 16th century. Chronicles of that period tell us the story.

A poor Indian named Cuauhtlatohuac was baptized and given the name Juan Diego. He was a 57-year-old widower, and lived in a small village near Mexico City. On Saturday morning December 9, 1531, he was on his way to a nearby barrio to attend Mass in honor of Our Lady.

Juan was walking by a hill called Tepeyac when he heard beautiful music like the warbling of birds. A radiant cloud appeared, and within it stood an Indian maiden dressed like an Aztec princess. The lady spoke to him in his own language and sent him to the bishop of Mexico, a Franciscan named Juan de Zumarraga. The bishop was to build a chapel in the place where the lady appeared.

Eventually, the bishop told Juan to have the lady give him a sign. About this same time Juan's uncle became seriously ill. This led poor Juan to try to avoid the lady. Nevertheless, the lady found Juan, assured him that his uncle would recover, and provided roses for Juan to carry to the bishop in his cape or tilma.

On December 12, when Juan Diego opened his tilma in the bishop's presence, the roses fell to the ground, and the bishop sank to his knees. On the tilma where the roses had been, appeared an image of Mary exactly as she had appeared at the hill of Tepeyac.
