Dear Parishioners,

I was recently making a phone call to the cable company and was placed "on hold" for some time. During this time, I began to reflect on the experience of being "on hold." Being "on hold" is a time of idle waiting during which nothing happens until someone is connected, and they ask, "how can I help you?" Then, you are no longer "on hold." I began to think about how our lives seem to have been "on hold" for many months now because of the Coronavirus pandemic. We have been waiting and waiting for it to be over, for our lives to go back to "normal," but we are still waiting, and here it is now almost a year later. It's as if we were placed "on hold" last March, and we are still waiting.

But as I thought about it some more, I realized that, unlike being "on hold" while waiting for a customer service representative to take a phone call, many things have happened and continue to happen during these months when it seemed and seems that life itself is "on hold." The life of our parish goes on differently, of course, but it continues. Babies are baptized, weddings are celebrated, Confessions are heard, the sick are anointed, the dying are given last rites, the deceased are given funeral rites, families are comforted, the Word of God is preached, children and adults are prepared to receive the sacraments. Thanks to our heroic faculty and staff, St. Andrew School students are learning and being formed in faith, in person, in their classrooms. Most important of all, the Mass is being celebrated and the Body and Blood of Christ are being given to the faithful in Holy Communion.

So, while we must wait longer for life to return to normal (and no one knows how long that wait will be), the life and activity of St. Andrew Parish are not "on hold." We are as busy as ever. The challenges are great, and we must be creative in finding ways to address the spiritual and pastoral needs of parishioners and help them remain connected to a community of faith that supports and encourages them. I also want to assure you that the priests of St. Andrew Parish are ready to serve you. If you or a member of your family are experiencing any pastoral or sacramental need requiring the services of a priest, please contact me and let me know. I will respond as quickly as I can, and I won't keep you "on hold" indefinitely! Meanwhile, keep your spirits up. Look forward to a better day. Remember, we are all in this together!

Your Pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney

Today's Gospel Mark 1: 29-39

In today's Gospel, we see what Jesus' ministry looked like. For three years, Jesus travelled through the Holy Land. When He entered a new city or town, He would preach, heal the sick, and drive out demons. Wouldn't it have been exciting to have Jesus visit your town?!

Of all the things Jesus did each day, the most important was prayer. Rising very early before dawn, He left and went off to a deserted place, where He prayed. (Mark 1:35) Jesus took time to talk to God. Prayer can help us solve problems and receive the gifts of wisdom and peace. It's also a chance to thank God for all of the blessings He gives us.

Prayer is the most important thing we can do each day, too. You can pray anywhere and anytime. You can pray with your family or by yourself. You can say a prayer like the Our Father or just speak to God from your heart. Prayer is a wonderful way to begin and end your day. Your challenge this week is to take a few minutes each day to pray.

THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is "Jackie," and, as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat! This week is going to be a special one for many of you. On Wednesday, those of you in Grade 2 are going to be experiencing the Sacrament of Confession for the very first time! That's right! Confession, also known as Reconciliation, is when you get to come to Jesus and ask Him for help and forgiveness for the things we do that keep us from being as holy as we're meant to be. God made us to be holy just like Him, but as we all know, it can be really tough always to do what is good and right. We often face temptations, or urges to do bad things....what we call "sins." Jesus never sinned, but He knows what it feels like to be tempted.

So, when you come to talk to Jesus in Confession (with the help of a priest), Jesus is going to be very kind to you to help you to be cleaned from those sins, and to do better in the future. Father Ferguson often tells kids that going to Confession is not like going to the Principal's Office in fear to be punished for doing something wrong, but it's more like going to a Doctor's Office with a sense of relief, to be fully healed from the sins that make our souls sick and sad. Don't ever be afraid to come to Confession. Jesus knows how easy it can be to be tempted; the Bible tells us that Satan even tried tempting Jesus many times....but never succeeded. And as a cat, I know how tempting it is to do bad things, too....like growling at Father when he wants me to get out of his chair; or poking fun at Mabel the dog and hiding her toys; or taunting the birds outside my window....It's tough to stay holy!

Jesus is your friend who wants to help you to be healed and made stronger in Confession. So, let's all pray for those in Grade 2 this week who will be experiencing their First Confession! Have a "purr"-fect week!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Q: Is it ever ok to leave Mass before it ends?

A: This is an interesting question, because beneath the surface, there seems to be an assumption that if it's okay, then why do we have to stay after we receive Communion? The short answer is "no," but we definitely want to go a bit deeper as we consider why.

If we simply leave after we receive Communion, we risk two things. First, there is the possibility that we will turn our reception of Communion into a purely personal, individual experience that is separated from our common experience of worship — and Communion in the fullest sense — and, second, we lose an opportunity for gratitude and serious reflection if we simply leave after Communion. This time of thanksgiving, reflection, and, ultimately, missioning, are important and, in the end, an essential part of the celebration of the Mass.

DOMINICAN LEARNING CENTER

TUTORS NEEDED

Started by the Dominican Sisters of Peace over 25 years ago, the DLC offers English as a Second Language (ESL) and GED prep in both English and Spanish to adult learners. Learners are matched with volunteer tutors based on availability, subject area, (and personality). Prior to being matched with a learner, all tutors are trained in the subject area that they have chosen to tutor. At this time, the majority of our matches are working together via Zoom or another online platform, but when the pandemic allows, we will also encourage those that can to meet in person at our South Side location.

We ask our tutors to commit to working with their learner for 1½-2 hours a week. If you would like more information about enrolling or about volunteering with the DLC, please contact denise.hilliard@oppeace.org or 614-444-7330, ext. 8.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

Have you ever wondered what life would be like if you could see the future and know how things turn out? While it's intriguing to ponder what life would be like if we possessed this knowledge, actually knowing could easily rob us of the thrill, adventure, and soul-searching graces of our journey. Like Job, life does not always leave us on a happy note. Life experience can bring us face-to-face with our mortality and leave us with a profound sense of helplessness. We do not see the wholeness and fulfillment that will one day come and cannot grasp the certainty that a resolution to our plight will come our way.

We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let Him help us to our feet. Living a life of faith means realizing that we are not here to figure out life on our own. In order to drink deeply of what life presents us, we have to wrestle in the depths of our souls, agonize and search, possibly reach the lowest point of desperation, and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. It is no wonder that those who are touched by God's healing power want to then serve others and show them the deeper waters that can be explored. Knowing too much can rob us of joyful surprises.
