Real Presence Real Future

The Diocese of Columbus announces Real Presence, Real Future, a strategic initiative that aims to expand the presence of Christ throughout the Diocese over the next two years and preserve the Faith for future generations.

Watch the message from Bishop Brennan: <https://realpresencerealfuture.org/>.

This initiative examines how the Church serves her people through a process of listening to their needs, hearing their ideas, concerns, and desires. This planning and consultation phase will be held throughout 2021 and the findings will be implemented over the next few years. The full scope of the Real Presence, Real Future initiative is to prepare the Diocese to increase its Catholic presence over the next 10 to 20 years and meet the many needs of the Diocese of Columbus' diverse areas and ethnicities, emphasizing the utilization of active diocesan priests and deacons, mission-oriented parishes and schools, and all other available resources.

Real Presence, Real Future Priorities:

- Engage all Catholics to reflect upon the real presence of the Lord in their lives and how they can share that presence with others.
- Articulate a plan for a comprehensive Catholic presence for each county/ deanery by integrating missionary outreach, parish and school footprints, and leadership requirements for the next five years.
- Define and develop the necessary Diocesan resources to support priests, deacons, and lay leaders in parishes and schools.

Real Presence, Real Future will be driven by six evangelization subcommittees:

- Forming parish missionary disciples
- Increasing the Catholic presence and outreach to university campuses

- Using digital and social communications for evangelization
- Deploying lay missionaries in parishes and schools
- Forming Catholic school faculty and staff in missionary discipleship
- Creating a soft-entry center focused on outreach to the religiously non-affiliated

We Want Your Feedback!

Throughout Lent, parishioners at every parish are being given the opportunity to participate in a diocesan-wide survey called the Disciple Maker Index that looks at all aspects of parish life. This 75-question survey is available between now and March 22 as a link on all parish websites and in hard copy at all parishes. Don't miss your chance to participate!

Stay informed about *Real Presence, Real Future

- Log on to the Real Presence, Real Future website – www.realpresencerealfuture.org – as the primary source for information about this initiative and will be routinely updated to provide the latest information and opportunities for feedback and consultation.
- Attend parish-level consultations in the fall to hear first-hand how this will impact your parish and grow the presence of the Church throughout the Diocese of Columbus.
- Read information in *The Catholic Times, as well as other news sources such as St. Gabriel Radio AM 820/FM 88.3.
- Subscribe to the Real Presence, Real Future e-newsletter. This monthly email will provide updates about this initiative and keep people informed throughout this two-year process. You can sign up here: <https://realpresencerealfuture.org/stay-updated/>.

40 Days for Life is a coordinated 40-day campaign that aims to end abortion locally through prayer and fasting, community outreach, and a peaceful all-day vigil. Supported by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Diocese of Columbus, the mission is to bring together the Body of Christ in a spirit of unity with the purpose of repentance, to seek God's favor to turn hearts and minds from a culture of death to a culture of life, thus bringing an end to abortion.

HOW CAN YOU GET INVOLVED?

Participate in a peaceful sidewalk vigil to pray for the end of abortion. St. Andrew is scheduled to participate March 20 from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., at North Columbus Planned Parenthood, 3255 E. Main St., Columbus, OH 43213 (please note this location is closed on Saturdays).

While all are invited to join us, we need at least two volunteers who will commit to be there for each hour of the day. Sign up for one-hour prayer blocks by visiting tinyurl.com/40Days4LifeStAndrew or contact Jim Holsinger at 614-394-7202 or jimholsing@yahoo.com.

As part of the diocesan-wide campaign, St. Andrew will host Adoration on March 23 from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. While everyone is invited and encouraged to attend (no registration needed, stay as long as you like), we need two people per hour who will commit to sit with Our Lord for one hour throughout the day. ## WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PRIESTS, BROTHERS, FRIARS, ETC?

The distinctions, titles and categories used for priests and the male members of religious communities can be confusing, especially since the categories can sometimes be intertwined as a man can be both a priest and a monk, or a brother and a friar. So, to help to piece the puzzle together, it's important to begin by noting some basic distinctions. For example, priests are ordained for sacramental ministry and brothers are non-ordained members of religious communities and who are committed to lives of prayer and service.

Priests: A priest is a man who has been ordained for sacramental ministry and these fall into two categories: A) Diocesan (or Secular) Priests can either be attached to a diocese and who serve under a bishop. Their ministry is usually oriented toward pastoral service. B) Religious Priests are members of religious communities (like the Franciscans, Jesuits, Salvatorians, or Carmelites) and their lives are guided by the special mission and charism of their community. While both kinds of priests practice sacramental ministry, their spirituality and how they live out their priesthood can be very different.

Brothers: Brothers are non-ordained members of religious communities (such as those mentioned above) who live lives committed to prayer and service. Religious priests and brothers serve together in their communities and their ministries include much more than the care of parishes.

Monks, Friars, and Canons: These are broad categories that include religious priests and brothers, and each of these is connected to specific ways of life and spiritualities.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP: RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Anybody remember the old rap song by the Fresh Prince, aka Will Smith, "Parents Just Don't Understand?" As we grow up, it is sometimes a struggle for us to imagine that our parents understand us. It can seem impossible that Mom and Dad remember the stress of exam week or peer pressure. We never saw them as children; we never saw their disappointed faces when they weren't invited to a party, or their dashed hopes at a bad test grade. We never saw them homesick their first week of college or nervous to ask their crush to Homecoming.

We're often the same way about God. We gripe about what He asks of us. "He doesn't understand sin – he's all-good," we think. "He doesn't understand temptation – He is perfect."

In Scripture, God can be very much a father, telling us what we can and cannot do. And yet, in His divine genius, He is sometimes simply a man at a well, asking for a drink.

For me, it turns out I didn't need to tell my parents anything about what I was going through as a kid – they knew already. What I needed was for them to tell me what to do, and how to do it.

Similarly, we don't need to tell God about human nature. We need God to tell us about His nature. He's good enough to ask us for a drink, to enter into our humanity. But we have to remember, for our own sakes, to have the humility to ask Him for something, too – the water that will quench our eternal thirst.
-Tracey Earl Welliver, MTS
