St. Andrew Church is a community of Catholics committed to serving God by living our faith. We exist to fulfill the mission of the Roman Catholic Church at the local level by continuing the saving work of Christ. We accomplish this through the celebration of the sacraments, proclaiming and living the Gospel, reaching out to others in justice and charity, and providing all parishioners abundant spiritual, educational, and social opportunities in order to be known as a faith-filled, engaged, and generous parish.

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners:

This coming Tuesday, Jan. 18, marks the beginning of the "Week of Prayer for Christian Unity," which continues through Tuesday, Jan. 25. This is an ecumenical observance in which all Christians pray for unity among Christians of different denominations.

Years ago when I was a young priest, I served as ecumenical officer for the Diocese of Columbus, and represented the local Catholic community in various ecumenical organizations like the Metropolitan Area Church Council and the Ohio Council of Churches. In the first decades after the Second Vatican Council, such ecumenical dialogue and collaboration was a high priority. I enjoyed that work and found that dialogue often showed the differences among Christian believers to be smaller than we may have thought, and there are many things about which we agree and profess in common. The week of prayer for Christian Unity was an occasion to celebrate the not-yet complete unity that nevertheless exists among Christians of different traditions, and also to pray that "all might be one" with a real sense of hope in that possibility.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity has not gotten much attention in the Catholic community in more recent times. I think it is important that we give this cause greater attention once again, and offer our prayers that the Body of Christ may be more united and less divided. As part of this prayer, let us especially seek the protection of the unity of our Catholic Church. At every Mass, we pray that God may not look upon our sins, but on the faith of the Church, and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with His will. That should be our fervent prayer during this week.

I worry that our Catholic Church, like the rest of society, is becoming more divided and polarized. This must not be allowed to happen. Unity is one of the marks of the Church. Let us pray and work for the unity of the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church, and to strengthen the bonds of communion and charity among all those who believe in Christ and follow Him.

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

EUCARISTIC ADORATION

As Catholics, we believe the Eucharist is truly Jesus Himself. Please join us for Eucharistic Adoration, on Tuesdays from 6 to 9 p.m. Eucharistic Adoration is simply the act of being in Christ's real presence while the Eucharist is on the altar. Adorers may stay as briefly or as long as they would like. Come spend time in the presence of the Lord. Nowhere on earth are you more welcomed or loved than in Eucharistic Adoration. Adoration will end with Compline (end of day prayers), followed by Benediction, beginning at 8:45 p.m.

LIVE THE GOSPEL OF LIFE: If you are unable to attend the annual March for Life in Washington, DC, there is a simple way you can participate to honor the unborn and the families facing unplanned pregnancies. Before and after Masses this weekend, representatives from the St. Andrew Respect Life group will be handing out white pin ribbons that were donated by Women's Care Center. You can wear your ribbons throughout the month of January to show support for the unborn and all victims of abortion.

THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is "Jackie," and, as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat! Well, I'm a little sad now, because the Christmas Season is all over! Did you have a good Christmas Season? Two things have been helping me feel less sad: one is knowing that Jesus is always close to me with His love at every moment, and the other is still taking joy in the gifts that Father Ferguson gave me for Christmas as a sign of his love for me, too.

One gift that I still have been enjoying is a cool art book titled, "The Cat in Art" (by Stefano Zuffi*). This is a book that shows cats included in all sorts of works of art in history. You know, art is a special way in which we humans try to celebrate all the beautiful aspects of the world around us, or about the beauty of life, or even to ponder the deep mysteries of the world (like, well....us cats!) As I "paw" through the pages of this art book, I've learned that many artists have included cats in their artwork. This includes the ancient Egyptians, the ancient Romans, and famous artists like Leonardo da Vinci, Renoir, and Picasso. They show cats hunting ducks, or fighting dogs, or eating table scraps (yum!), or just sitting by a fireplace napping.

If you were to make an art book about you and your family, what would you want to show and celebrate? What would you highlight about your mom or dad, or about your siblings? How would you show all the blessings God has given to you and your family? Art is a powerful way to communicate beauty and blessing and to give praise to God. Why not draw some pictures today, and pray to God while doing it? Have a "purr"-fect week!

*Note to Parents: If you decide to order this book, please be aware that it does contain a handful of sensitive, yet respectful images regarding the human body which you may wish to discern whether or not to show your children as you share and discuss with them the artwork in this book. Depending on the age and maturity of your child, it might be a tool to initiating a positive discussion about the purity and beauty of the human form as created by God and viewed respectfully as a reflection of divine beauty, in the spirit of John Paul's "Theology of the Body"

Forbes 2021 "Best-in-State Advisors"

Jim Hyre received the Forbes ranking of Best In-State Wealth Advisor, developed by SHOOK Research, and is based on an algorithm of qualitative criteria, mostly gained through telephone and in-person due diligence interviews, and quantitative data. Those advisors that are considered have a minimum of seven years of experience, and the algorithm weights factors like revenue trends, assets under management, compliance records, industry experience and those that encompass best practices in their practices and approach to working with clients. Portfolio performance is not a criteria due to varying client objectives and lack of audited data. Out of approximately 32,725 nominations, more than 5,000 advisors were short-listed. The Best In-State Wealth Advisor list is not indicative of an advisor's future performance. It is not an endorsement, and may not be representative of an advisor's current performance. For more information, visit www.shookresearch.com. Raymond James and its affiliated advisors and RIA firms pay a fee in exchange for being selected. Raymond James is not affiliated with Forbes or SHOOK Research. For more information, visit www.raymondjames.com/best-state-wealth-advisor. Investment advisory services are offered through Raymond James Financial Services, Inc., member FINRA/SIPC.
