St. Andrew Church is a community of Catholics committed to serving God by living our faith. We exist to fulfill the mission of the Roman Catholic Church at the local level by continuing the saving work of Christ. We accomplish this through the celebration of the sacraments, proclaiming and living the Gospel, reaching out to others in justice and charity, and providing all parishioners abundant spiritual, educational, and social opportunities in order to be known as a faith-filled, engaged, and generous parish.

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners:

I hope you enjoyed the interview I had with the members of the St. Andrew School Student Council which was featured in last week's bulletin. I certainly enjoyed being interviewed by them, and the article was better than anything I could have written! My thanks to the Student Council and Mrs. Duffy!

Monday, February 14 is St. Valentine's Day. Do you recall that Valentine's Day is actually the feast day of a saint? St. Valentine was a priest in Rome in the early church, and he was a martyr who was executed on February 14 in about the year 270 A.D. during the persecution under the emperor Claudius. How St. Valentine became associated with love and the custom of sending "valentines" to loved ones is unclear. However, our duty as followers of Christ is always to "Love your neighbor as yourself." On Valentine's Day, let us renew this commitment to love. We can start with simply being kind to one another – there is too much nastiness in our world today, too much disrespect for others, too many insults and disparaging comments. May St. Valentine help us to show and express kindness and love to others.

We have two important events coming soon: Catholic Women's Conference on February 19, and the Catholic Men's Conference on February 26. Both of these events are to take place "in-person" at the Ohio Expo Center. The theme of the Women's conference is "Rekindle the gift of God that is within you." The theme of the Men's conference is "Called to be Saints – Sacred Heart of Jesus." I heartily encourage women and men of St. Andrew Parish to register and attend these conferences. You will be inspired by great speakers and strengthened in faith and charity. As a diocesan administrator, it is my honor to be the main celebrant for the Mass for both of these conferences. I hope to see many of you there!

Have a blessed week!

Your Pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney

EUCARISTIC ADORATION

As Catholics, we believe the Eucharist is truly Jesus Himself. Please join us for Eucharistic Adoration, on Tuesdays from 6 to 9 p.m. Eucharistic Adoration is simply the act of being in Christ's real presence while the Eucharist is on the altar. Adorers may stay as briefly or as long as they would like. Come spend time in the presence of the Lord. Nowhere on earth are you more welcomed or loved than in Eucharistic Adoration. Adoration will end with Compline (end of day prayers), followed by Benediction, beginning at 8:45 p.m.

Dear Parishioners:

As some of you have discovered, we've run into an issue with the Annual Contribution Statements that were mailed to parishioners last week. While embarrassing for us, there is an explanation for the glitch: In the summer of 2021, we migrated from an old, outdated database and parish census system to a new system supported by the Diocese of Columbus. While this new system offers MANY benefits that were not available before, the migration process and technology learning curve brought unexpected challenges and opportunities. The challenge: ensuring the seamless transfer of data (especially financial data) from the old database to the new system. The opportunity: learning more about the new system and how to fix data errors as they occur so that this doesn't happen in the future.

If you have a question about your statement or believe the information is incorrect, contact Andy Naporano, anaporano@standrewparish.cc.

If you have not received your statement by February 18, please contact Kelly Nasdeo, knasdeo@standrewparish.cc.

Thank you for your stewardship of St. Andrew Parish.

THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is "Jackie", and, as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat! Did you know that tomorrow is "St. Valentine's Day"? That's right! There really was a saint named St. Valentine...he was a priest who lived in the 200's (a long time ago!) in Italy, and he was killed by the Emperor for his Christian faith.

It's not clear how it happened over the centuries, but the feast day of St. Valentine (February 14) eventually became associated with "love".

Maybe at your school, you'll be exchanging Valentine's Day cards or candy to mark this day focused on love and kindness. You know, it's a good chance to think about the many ways we "love," and the differences between them. Love is so important, and it's also important that we love "people" in the right way, and not in the same way we love "things." For example, when we say, "I love ice cream!" (or "I love tuna!"), what do we mean? We mean that we get excited over how the taste of "things" like ice cream...or tuna...gives us good feelings. In other words, we think about ice cream or tuna in terms of "What's in it for ME?"

Boys and girls, we are meant to love other "people" in a very different way. When you say, "Mommy, I love you!", you should be saying that not in terms of "What's in this for ME?...well, yeah, Mom is useful for cooking my meals and driving me to school and cleaning my room!" Mom is not a "thing," like a machine, simply there to make your life easier. Mom is a "person," a special creation of God. And so, we say "Mommy, I love you!" not in order to "take more" from Mom, but to GIVE to Mom our appreciation and love, simply for how special Mom IS! This deeper kind of love...a love that respects the inner dignity of human persons...is so important! So, on this St. Valentine's Day, why not take a few moments and tell Mom and Dad just how much you love them...simply for who they ARE? Have a "purr"-fect week!

THE BEREAVEMENT COMMITTEE is looking for volunteers to help with the luncheons they provide after funerals. They occasionally need donations of baked (or store bought) goods, soda, salads, and more. Call or text Jaime Sternick, 614-598-0436 to join the call/email list. It is a great way to get involved in the Corporal Work of Mercy of Burying the Dead. The families that attend the bereavement luncheons are so touched by the generosity of the parish. It is a tremendous source of comfort during a difficult time.

THANK YOU to all of parishioners who came out on Friday, Jan. 28, for WOSA's BINGO night. The evening was a huge success! Many requests came in to have another BINGO night in the future and we agree! If you didn't join us this time, we look forward to you joining us next time.

Sincerely,
Adrienne Pietropaolo and Jen Wenzke

ST. JOSEPHINE BAKHITA

From Slave to Saint

The answer is as beautifully complex as the woman, whose feast day is celebrated Feb. 8 – the same day the church acknowledges as the International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking.

Born in the Darfur region of Southern Sudan in the 1800s, St. Josephine Bakhita was kidnapped when she was 7 years old by Arab slave traders. She was resold several times until she was sold to an Italian consul in 1883. Two years after that, the consul took Josephine to Italy where she became a babysitter to Mimmina Michieli.

It was during that time as a babysitter that Josephine would accompany Mimmina to an Italian institute run by the Canossian sisters. While the young Italian girl was being instructed, Josephine felt drawn to the Catholic Church. By 1890, she was baptized and confirmed, taking the name Josephine. The Canossian Sisters and the patriarch of Venice intervened on her behalf and Josephine was declared free in 1885, since slavery was illegal in Italy. She entered the Institute of St. Magdalene of Canossa in 1893, then made her profession three years later as a nun.

But why is her story important for the church today? Ask St. Clare's youth minister, Peter Damour.

“What’s so important when we talk about our faith is having our young people see that they can relate to their faith. When I talk about holy people or people who lived like them, I use saints as an example. I tap into saints that look like them, too.

“They’ll learn about black history in school, but they can also learn about their faith. It’s important too because in a church where we have a lot of males in leadership and decision making roles, having St. Josephine who was able to come around and help the children at her time, that’s important to show that you can still do extraordinary things with the little that you do.”

ST. JOSEPHINE BAKHITA, VIRGIN

“Be good, love the Lord, pray for those who do not know him.

What a great grace it is to know God!”

Black History Month

She was known for her smile, gentleness and holiness. This African flower, who knew the anguish of kidnapping and slavery, bloomed marvelously in Italy, in response to God’s grace, with the Daughters of Charity, where everyone still calls her “Mother Moretta (our Black Mother).

If I were to meet the slave-traders who kidnapped me and even those who tortured me, I would kneel and kiss their hands, for if that did not happen, I would not be a Christian and Religious today.

Forbes 2021 "Best-in-State Advisors"

Jim Hyre received the Forbes ranking of Best In-State Wealth Advisor, developed by SHOOK Research, and is based on an algorithm of qualitative criteria, mostly gained through telephone and in-person due diligence interviews, and quantitative data. Those advisors that are considered have a minimum of seven years of experience, and the algorithm weights factors like revenue trends, assets under management, compliance records, industry experience and those that encompass best practices in their practices and approach to working with clients. Portfolio performance is not a criteria due to varying client objectives and lack of audited data. Out of approximately 32,725 nominations, more than 5,000 advisors were shortlisted. The ranking is not indicative of an advisor's future performance. It is not an endorsement, and may not be representative of an advisor's current performance.
