MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I want to remind you about the upcoming missionary appeal to take place at Saint Andrew parish on July 30 and 31. This appeal is part of the missionary cooperation plan which all diocesan parishes participate in. This appeal gives ordinary Catholics the opportunity to participate in the missionary action of the church. I spoke with Fr. Lawrence Chellaian recently and he is very excited to be visiting St. Andrew parish to make this appeal. He will be preaching at all the Masses next weekend. I hope that you will give him a warm welcome and a generous response on behalf of his missionary organization.

Fr. Lawrence will share the story of the Holy Family Mission and the group of missionary priests who work in the rural villages of Southwest India. Since the mission was established in 1936, the community has seen a steady growth in the number of Catholics in the area. The community gathers for Mass and other celebrations in a small temporary building, which is deteriorating and collapsing. Donations from St. Andrew parishioners will help to build a small church building where the community can gather for sacramental and other celebrations. Thank you for your response to this missionary appeal.

May God bless you all!

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

EUCCHARISTIC HOLY HOUR

All men of the parish and their families are invited to Eucharistic Exposition on Tuesday, July 26, 8 to 9 p.m. We will pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and the Holy Rosary followed at 8:45 p.m. with Compline and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Make time to be in Christ's presence and open yourself to the graces which flow from the Eucharist!

THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is "Jackie," and as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat. Have you been enjoying these days of summer vacation? I know I certainly have! I've been spending lots of time each day lying down outside on the outdoor window ledge soaking in the sunshine and breezy air. Right next to me, I keep all the supplies I need for a lazy summer afternoon: a cooler full of bottles of iced milk (yum!), bags of snacks (I prefer to munch on mouse jerky and dried tuna chips), and my sunglasses and fur brush. We cats have fur so we don't need sunscreen, but you humans do need sunscreen!

In between my naps outside, I like to do some summer reading. It's important to keep reading during the summer so that we can learn more about the world around us, explore new things, and also just enjoy a good story! This summer I've found some interesting books that you might enjoy, too. I started with "Saint Clare and her Cat" (by Dessi Jackson). This book features Clare as a young girl (she was a friend of St. Francis of Assisi!) when she discovered what God wanted her to do with her life in this world when she grew up. Currently, I am pawing through another book, "The True Story of Rocky the Catholic Cat" (by Bill Van Dusen). In this story, I've been learning how much God loves us and wants to help us get to Heaven no matter the challenges we experience. When I get done with this book, I think I'll start in on a new series of books called, "The Pope's Cat" (by Jon M. Sweeney). I hear that this series helps us discover a lot about the Pope and our Catholic faith with the help of a stray cat adopted by the Pope!

What do you enjoy doing outside during the summertime? Do you have any favorite ways you like to relax outside? Have you been reading any good books this summer? Take a few moments today and thank Jesus for the gift of summertime and all the happiness and fun that comes with this season! Now, pardon me, but my iced milk is getting warm, and I want to finish this chapter! Have a "purr"-fect week!
