We exist to fulfill the mission of the Roman Catholic Church at the local level by continuing the saving work of Christ. We accomplish this through the celebration of the sacraments, proclaiming and living the Gospel, reaching out to others in justice and charity, and providing all parishioners abundant spiritual, educational, and social opportunities in order to be known as a faith-filled, engaged, and generous parish.

MESSAGE FROM THE DEACON

Dear Parishioners,

As noted last week by Deacon Berg, the Deacons are filling in for the Pastor during his vacation to complete this column. I hope Monsignor is enjoying his well-deserved break. Here are a few of my thoughts for the upcoming week.

I grew up in rural Ross County outside of Chillicothe. While Memorial Day was the beginning of summer, we kids really did not feel that summer started until July 4th weekend. This was the weekend filled with bonfires, hog roasts, and roasted marshmallows and s'mores for us kids. And, of course, the fireworks that would scare us as youngsters and then awe us as we got older. And it was the time when we would find out where we were going for vacation, possibly camping in the Smokies, or maybe a trip to California to see an uncle. As I got older and had a family of my own, I tried to capture this same magic and give it to my daughter. I hope that she gives it to her children when they come – that joy and freedom that we have during our summer vacations.

In this week's Gospel, we hear how Our Lord sent forth disciples to teach to others as they traveled from town to town. They would teach each other about the wonder of God's love by example, much in the same manner that I was taught as a young child. This is a great lesson as we go on our vacations this year: Try to show God's love to each other. And not just to your family members, but to all that you meet in the airports, along the interstate roadside rests, as you hike trails in the forests, even at the gas stations as you fuel up for the next leg of your journey. Teach them about the Gospel by showing them what the Gospel is, the Good News of Jesus' love.

And while you are on your journeys, there is a great site to help you find a Mass, www.masstimes.org. Just type in the zip code of where you are, hit enter, and it will show you churches near you that are holding a Mass and when they begin. That way, you too can fuel up with God's love to help spread it.

So have a safe celebration of our nation's birthday, enjoy the summer and your vacation, and don't forget to give everyone God's love.

Deacon Dan

THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is "Jackie," and as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat. Well, this weekend is a special one for our great Republic! That's right! This weekend, we get ready to celebrate July 4 as Independence Day! That's right!

Back in the year 1776, our Founding Fathers insisted that all people have human dignity from being created by God, and that a good nation – and its leaders – should respect that dignity. They said we should be free from bad leaders (kings back in those days were really harsh!) so that we can have the liberty to live in dignity and to pursue happiness – and Heaven is the greatest happiness there is (with the possible exception of the tuna aisle at the store, but that's a topic for another discussion!)

So, on Independence Day, we celebrate the liberties we enjoy in our nation, as well as the sacrifices of the patriots of the American Revolution. Father Ferguson told me that he has two ancestors who helped during the Revolution: one who fought in several battles in the colonies of Massachusetts and Rhode Island (Capt. Daniel Eames); and one who was a doctor near Boston who, according to his old diaries, treated the soldiers wounded after the nearby Battles of Lexington & Concord, as well as after the Battle of Bunker Hill (Dr. Aaron Wight).

What brave patriots founded our nation! Unfortunately, as a cat, I don't always feel too brave on Independence Day. Last year, I was peacefully napping, when suddenly I was awoken by loud fireworks! That sent me hiding under the couch shaking with wide eyes, until Father told me to come out. He explained that we all need to continue to be brave Americans today and keep asking God to protect our liberties! So, on this Independence Day weekend, not only enjoy your cookouts and those loud fireworks, but take a moment to thank God for the blessings of our great Republic! Have a "purr"-fect week!
