MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Festival Week is here! The 20th Festival at St. Andrew is happening this coming Friday and Saturday, August 19 and 20. This will be an especially welcome event not only because of the milestone "twentieth," but also because we have missed our Festival in the last two years because of the pandemic. I am looking forward to a really good time, and to seeing all of you there, likewise having a really good time. Please remember that on Festival Saturday, August 20, the Vigil Mass will be celebrated at 4:00 p.m., rather than the usual 4:30 p.m.

There is another special occasion occurring this week. Monday, August 15, is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Normally, this feast is a Holy Day of Obligation, but because it falls on a Monday this year, the obligation of attending Mass on the holy day is dispensed. Some years ago, the bishops of the United States established a rule that when certain holy days (namely, January 1, Mary Mother of God, August 15, Assumption, or November 1, All Saints) fall on Mondays or Saturdays, the obligation is dispensed. December 8, Immaculate Conception, and December 25, Christmas, are always days of obligation no matter what day of the week they occur. This dispensation is intended to ease the burden of having a holy day of obligation back-to-back with a Sunday, and two consecutive days with a full schedule of Masses. Although that is appreciated, it can be somewhat confusing when these feasts are days of obligation in some years but not in others. This year, the Solemnity of the Assumption will be observed on Monday, August 15, and Masses will be celebrated at 6:30 and 8:30 a.m. according to our regular weekday Mass schedule.

I wish you all a happy Festival Week!

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is "Jackie," and as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat. Ooh! Ooh! I am really excited! Did you know that this coming Friday and Saturday, the Parish Festival will be taking place? That's right! Right here at St. Andrew's, our parish will be having a gigantic party – called a Festival – to celebrate our Catholic faith and our friendship as followers of Jesus. It's going to be so big that it will take over our entire parking lot! There will be all kinds of rides and games, as well as food and fun!

Do you like going to Festivals? As I cat, I love hanging out at Festivals. For example, I can spend hours lying on the ground and watching the carnival rides that twirl kids around in circles. We cats love watching things go around in circles! And then there's the tasty food, like the giant tacos with double mouse meat and cheese, along with the deep-fried tuna. Plus, Festivals have great kitty...errrr... kids games, such as "Pin the Tail on the Tiger," "Chase the Squirrel Sprinting Contest," and "Beat the Cat Staring Contest." The live music is also great at Festivals, with timeless hits like "Cat's in the Cradle" and "The Lion Sleeps Tonight."

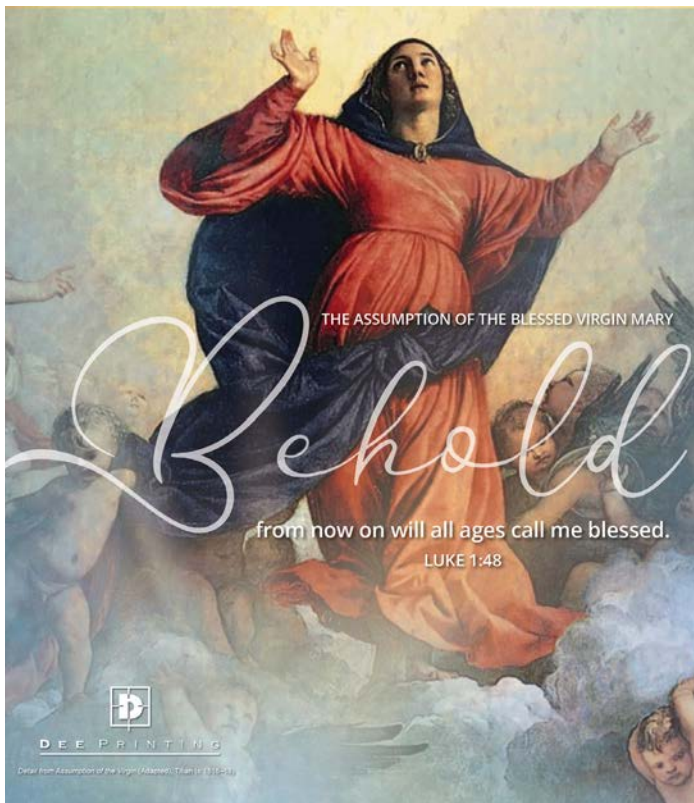

What do you like most about Festivals? What will you try out first when you come to the St. Andrew Festival this coming weekend? Get ready for a fabulous time with your family and friends. Until then, have a "purr"-fect week!
