MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for your very generous response to the Missionary Appeal last weekend! I told Fr. Lawrence, who made the appeal on behalf of the Holy Family Mission in Southwest India, that St. Andrew parishioners are very generous, and you proved that once again. We have received over $8,000 in contributions already. I am so very grateful to you and I take pride in the reputation of St. Andrew Parish, renowned for its willingness to support good causes with a generous spirit.

I also would like to thank you for your generous response so far to this year's Bishop's Annual Appeal. We have not quite reached our goal yet, but we have pledges for 86% of our goal of $205,155. Thank you for your generous support of the BAA! If you have not yet made a pledge for this year's Appeal, please do so soon, so we can make 100% of our goal.

Finally, our Festival at St. Andrew is drawing near! I hope everyone is planning to come and enjoy. However, many volunteers are still needed, and our Festival's success depends on volunteers. Please consider signing up to volunteer for a few hours. Not only will you be helping out, but you will have fun doing it! Thank you for your generous spirit!

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is "Jackie," and as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat. I'm having a tough time as summer vacation keeps going. That's right! When vacation started two months ago, I was so excited about all the free time I was going to have. I had all kinds of plans to do lots of great things: go outdoors on squirrel hunting trips; read new books about cat explorers; and make new friends at Vacation Bible School. I've done those things, but I still had so much extra free time that I've also gotten into some bad habits, too.

One bad habit I've gotten into has been spending too much time on video games. That's right! At first, a few weeks ago, I was just going to play a few minutes of "Teenage Mutant Ninja Tigers." But then a few minutes quickly became a couple of hours...then three...then four! And when I got tired of that game, I went onto "Grand Theft Salmon." I couldn't help it, but I was spending five hours a day racking up high scores trying to steal that salmon. I finally realized I had a problem when I spent all day earlier this week playing "Minecraft: Doggy Domsday Edition."

Father Ferguson came into my room that evening and asked where I had been all day. He said he hadn't seen me and he missed hanging out with me. Then he saw what I was doing, as I sat in front of the screen, tired and drooling. He was really sad for me. He told me that spending so much time on video games was not a good thing. He said that video games can be OK a few minutes a day, but not for several hours. Otherwise, video games can take valuable time away from making friends, spending time with real people, and keeping a balanced, healthy life. And video games can become addictive – something that's hard to stop doing.

I knew that Father was right. I was not feeling very healthy or happy after so much time on video games. So, I promised that I would get rid of my video games and go back to doing healthier things: like playing with Father or going outdoors more. It's been hard to change, but I resolve with God's help to get rid of this bad habit. Life's too fun and interesting to spend it all day in front of a "screen"! What tough habits do you want Jesus to help you with, to be more healthy and happy? Pray to Jesus right now and ask Him for His help! Have a "purr"-fect week!
