MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The month of September is quickly nearing its end – this weekend is the last before the calendar turns to October. Where does the time go? As the old saying has it, “tempus fugit,” or “time flies.”

Please pray for our parishioner and St. Andrew School student Audrey Wenzke who was recently diagnosed with lymphoma. Audrey is in the 8th grade, and her friends and classmates are gathering to pray for her in the church on Monday, Sept. 26, at 6:30 p.m. I will join them in prayer and I invite all of you to do so as well. Prayer is a powerful remedy!

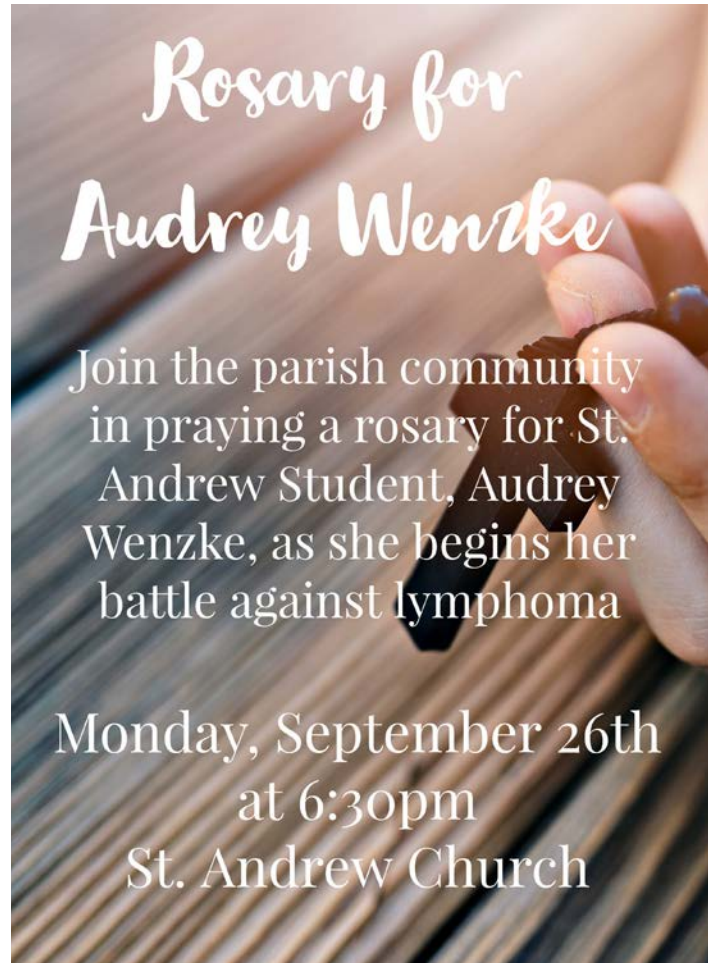

Like millions around the world, I watched the funeral of Queen Elizabeth II this past Monday. As a priest who with some frequency preaches a homily at funerals, I was curious to hear what the preacher would say at the funeral of the Queen. I know I struggle to say just the right thing when I give a funeral homily, and I had sympathy for whoever had the duty of preaching for the Queen, to an audience of millions including numerous world leaders. The Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby, was the preacher. The homily was excellent. It was eloquent. It was brief. It was not impersonal, but it focused primarily on the mystery of Christ. The emphasis was that the Queen's life of service and duty was the fulfillment of her Christian vocation. I feel he said just the right thing. I also noted that the funeral did not include a eulogy, and that the rites and prayers, readings and psalms were much the same as are heard in the funerals celebrated in our church. Finally, I heard the celebrant at one point refer to “our sister Elizabeth,” recalling that the baptized are all brothers and sisters in the Body of Christ. In many respects, the Queen's funeral followed the pattern of the funeral rites as we celebrate them for our departed brothers and sisters, which made me proud of our Catholic funeral liturgy.

Please note that next Sunday, Oct. 2, I will conduct the annual Pet Blessing at 3:00 p.m. on the rectory lawn. This is in anticipation of the feast of St. Francis of Assisi (which falls on Tuesday, Oct. 4). Please bring your pets for this blessing. Mabel will be there to welcome all the animals and their people, and to receive the blessing also. She is now an elderly dog (she will be 14 years old in January).

May God's blessing be upon you all.

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

"How can I repay the Lord for all the great good done for me?" Psalm 116:12

Jesus asks us to demonstrate our love for Him through our generosity to others. In our everyday lives, He calls us to share our gifts of time, talent and treasure for the good of others. A planned gift made to St. Andrew is one way to answer His call of stewardship while strengthening our faith community for future generations.

A planned gift is intended to be used in the future. It's a commitment made during your lifetime that can support organizations like St. Andrew Parish when you no longer need your assets. Along with current benefits, like tax advantages, planned giving allows you to make your intentions known (usually through financial or estate planning) today and when God calls you home.

Along with providing for your children and loved ones, have you considered a planned gift to St. Andrew Parish? To start a conversation, please contact Christy Steffy at The Catholic Foundation, 614-443-8893, ext. 110, or csteffy@catholic-foundation.org.

Adorers may stay as briefly or as long as they would like. Adoration will end with Compline (end of day prayers), followed by Benediction, beginning at 8:45 p.m.

SPECIAL EUCCHARISTIC HOLY HOUR: All men of the parish and their families are invited to a Eucharistic Exposition on Tuesday, Sept. 27, 8 to 9 p.m. We will pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and the Holy Rosary followed at 8:45 p.m. with Compline and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is "Jackie," and as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat. It's been a tough week. As many of you know, one of the big kids in our parish in 8th grade, Audrey Wenzke, found out that she has a really bad illness called cancer. She's in the hospital, which is a special place where doctors and nurses help people to get better. But Audrey's illness is a tough one that will take a long time to get better from.

I've had a lot of different emotions over the last few days as I heard the news. We cats can have a wide range of emotions. On the same day, a cat can hiss at one thing and then purr about something else. All these feelings can be confusing. So, when I learned about Audrey's illness, I knew what I had to do. I knew I had to talk to Jesus in prayer. I shared with Jesus all my feelings. I told Jesus that I felt really sad that Audrey is now so sick. I even told Jesus that I was really mad that the big bad illness called cancer would pick on a wonderful girl like Audrey. But I also told Jesus that I felt really glad and happy that Audrey was already getting a lot of love and care and support from so many people: her family, her doctors and nurses, her friends and teachers at school, and from the whole community!

And you know what? In my prayer, I sensed Jesus telling me that He was supporting Audrey as well. Jesus reminded me that He came into this world to fight everything that's bad and evil. And Jesus also reminded me that He went through a lot of suffering and crosses, too. So, He told me that He would be there with Audrey in her illness, and that no matter what, nothing – not even sickness – would take Audrey away from His great love for her. Jesus was uniting her to His Sacred Heart of love!

I was glad I talked to Jesus in prayer. I still have a lot of questions and worries, but Jesus said that that's OK. He would be there to give all of us peace. Like us cats, you humans have a lot of emotions, too. So, boys and girls, as you pray to Jesus for Audrey in her illness, know that it's OK to share all your emotions with Jesus. And talk to your parents about what you're feeling, too. I did that with Father Ferguson. They want to help you find peace, too. So this week, let's all together meow a ton of prayers for Audrey, so that she, too, can feel a lot of peace from being embraced by the love of Jesus and everyone in our community!

ST. ANDREW KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL 11275 invites you to participate in the Knights of Columbus initiative called Aid and Support After Pregnancy (ASAP).

On June 24, 2022, the US Supreme Court upheld a Mississippi law banning abortion after 15 weeks of pregnancy, concurrently overturning Roe v. Wade, the landmark ruling that legalized abortion nearly 50 years ago. Through ASAP, the Knights of Columbus is now strengthening support for pregnancy resource centers here in Columbus and we are asking you to consider lending your support to either the Women's Care Center or Pregnancy Decision Health Center by using the QR code.

The National K of C Council will match each council's $500 donation with an extra $100 up to a maximum of $400.

Check out the recent YouTube video that details how the Knights of Columbus councils across the country are lending support to this important, life-saving initiative: www.youtube.com/watch?v=EtMtDDLm47U

Office of the Bishop
614 • 224 • 2251

September 7, 2022

Reverend Monsignor Stephan J. Moloney
St. Andrew Church
1899 McCoy Road
Columbus, OH 43220

Dear Monsignor Moloney:

Thank you for your leadership in this year's Bishop's Annual Appeal. This is an exciting time in the Diocese of Columbus as a new era begins and as the Diocese plans for significant growth in our region. At my installation, I invited priests, deacons, and lay men and women to walk with me, as we journey together toward a better future, knowing that the Lord walks with us.

I am very grateful to the parishioners of St. Andrew Church, who through their generous support have exceeded their 2022 BAA Parish Goal. Their sacrifices not only help us to meet the current needs of the Diocese but to plan for the future as the Diocese of Columbus, its parishes, and local communities continue to grow.

The sacrifices of so many of the faithful help us be obedient to the commandment of the Lord to go forth and make disciples of all nations, making Christ present in a changing world through the handing on of the gift of faith.

A successful BAA is an important element of imbuing our culture with the Gospel, and your leadership and the generosity of your parishioners are a critical element of that success. Your support and promotion of the Appeal is a great help as I begin my episcopal ministry in Columbus. Please share my sentiments of gratitude with the faithful at St. Andrew.

Grateful for your prayers for the success of this year's Bishop's Annual Appeal, and assuring you of my prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Earl K. Fernandez
Bishop of Columbus
