MESSAGE FROM THE DEACON

Dear Parishioners,

Greetings! I am filling in for Monsignor Moloney, who has been on retreat this past week. A retreat is a wonderful aspect of the life of faith, an opportunity to focus on quiet time with the Lord. It brings to mind this Psalm passage: "Be still and know that I am God! (Ps 46:11)." All of us have hectic lives. These words from God inviting us to be still and know Him more deeply call us to set all that busyness aside for a time to calm our hurried minds and hearts in order to refocus our lives on God's call to be His disciples. Being still for a time allows us to clean some clutter out of our lives so that we can set aside what distracts us from our mission of discipleship in the Lord, strengthening and refreshing us for life's journey.

An extended retreat for a few days or more is a wonderful opportunity to accomplish this, and I encourage all of you to consider doing this once in a while. There are plenty of excellent opportunities available. In addition to that, consider those little opportunities that exist every day to step back, be still, and know Our Lord: stopping by the church to pray, creating quiet time at home for a few minutes to pray, going for a walk outside away from all the distractions to enjoy nature and Our Lord's creation. The possibilities you can create to make regular little retreats in your life are boundless and helpful.

May Our Lord bless you and keep you, that you know Our Lord more and more closely every day!

Deacon Tom Berg, Jr.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Please join us for Eucharistic Adoration, on Tuesdays from 6 to 9 p.m. Eucharistic Adoration is simply the act of being in Christ's real presence while the Eucharist is on the altar. Adorers may stay as briefly or as long as they would like. Adoration will end with Compline (end of day prayers), followed by Benediction, beginning at 8:45 p.m.

SPECIAL EUCCHARISTIC HOLY HOUR: All men of the parish and their families are invited to an extended Eucharistic Exposition on Tuesday, Oct. 25, 8 to 9 p.m. We will pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and the Holy Rosary followed at 8:45 p.m. with Compline and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Make time to be in Christ's presence and open yourself to the graces which flow from the Eucharist!

The month of November is a special time in our Catholic tradition for remembering our departed loved ones. Please join us at 3:00 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 6, for a special service of Evening Prayer and Song in remembrance of loved ones who have passed away. The service will include psalms, choral anthems, congregational hymns, readings and reflections of remembrance, hope, and consolation, within the Church's celebration of Evening Prayer. All are welcome.

For those who cannot attend, the service will also be livestreamed at StAndrewParishLive.com.

THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is Jackie, and as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat. It's been tough for me in Kitty School. It's already been about two months since school began. With the summer over and the weather getting colder, it's been harder to focus on my schoolwork. I keep daydreaming about summer, wishing it were still here, when I spent so much time napping in the sun. Nowadays, I have the urge to nap on the windowsill of the classroom by the heaters on these cold autumn days.

We did have some excitement in our classroom last week. Our teacher, Mrs. Fluffy, invited Father Ferguson to come in to give us a special presentation. It didn't go well. Whenever he teaches, Father likes to use those red laser pointers to point out things he is projecting onto the pull-down screen. Apparently, Father forgot that we cats have a hard time sitting still whenever we see laser-pointer dots moving around. Around four seconds after Father started his lesson and pointed the laser dot at the screen, all 25 of us student cats suddenly jumped up from our desks and attacked the screen!

Thus ended the lesson. The screen has been given a proper burial. Mrs. Fluffy was not happy. She says a new screen is on order. Mrs. Fluffy also said that she has banned Father from our classroom for the rest of the year! Oh well! It sure made for a lively morning in school!

What challenges do you experience with going to school? Why not talk to Jesus in prayer (He once went to school, too) and ask His help in getting the most out of school and learning all the great things God wants you to learn? Have a "purr"-fect week!

Why God is calling His Church to a Eucharistic Revival

The Bishops of the United States have initiated a three-year grassroots revival of devotion and belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, which kicked off on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi 2022. The three years will culminate in the 2024 National Eucharistic Congress, the first in the United States in almost fifty years.

St. Andrew Parish is honored to welcome Tim Glemkowski, the newly appointed executive director of the 2024 National Eucharistic Congress. We encourage all parishioners and guests to join us in November when Mr. Glemkowski will share his unique insights surrounding this significant national revival intended to unify and strengthen the Church.

Light Refreshments and desserts will be available for those who attend.

WE ARE CALLED TO BE STEWARDS OF GOD'S GIFTS

Christian stewards see themselves as the caretakers of God's gifts and express gratitude for these abundances through prayer, worship, offerings and actions. Stewardship is a way of thanking God for our blessings as we return a portion of the many gifts we have been given by God. One way to fulfill our responsibility as entrusted stewards is through planned giving.

A planned gift is intended to be used in the future. It's a commitment made during your lifetime that can support organizations like St. Andrew Parish when you no longer need your assets. Along with current benefits, like tax advantages, planned giving allows you to make your intentions known (usually through financial or estate planning) today for when God calls you home.

Along with providing for your children and loved ones, have you considered a planned gift to St. Andrew Parish? To start a conversation, please contact Christy Steffy at The Catholic Foundation, 614-443-8893, ext. 110, or csteffy@catholic-foundation.org.
