MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I have several things to share with you today, this last weekend of October. First of all, thank you for your generous response to the special collection for Hurricane Ian relief! You donated over $10,000 to this appeal, which is being sent to Catholic Charities USA to help with disaster relief. Thank you!

Secondly, be sure to see and read the annual financial summary and my letter in today's bulletin. For a variety of reasons, we did not issue such a report last year, but it is vitally important that parishioners be aware of the financial condition of their parish.

Third, I want to remind you that Tuesday of this week, November 1, is a Holy Day of Obligation, the Solemnity of All Saints. All Masses for the Holy Day are on Tuesday: 6:30 and 8:30 a.m., 12:15 and 7:00 p.m. Please note that there will be no Adoration and Benediction on Tuesday evening because of the Holy Day Mass and there is no Vigil Mass for All Saints' Day on Monday, Oct. 31.

Finally, the month of November is dedicated to prayer for the faithful departed. Be sure to pray in a special way for your deceased family members, friends and loved ones. We also show our solidarity with those who are grieving and who have experienced a loss recently by praying for them and offering our sympathy and support. During November, the Book of the Dead will be in the vestibule of the Church for you to inscribe the names of your deceased loved ones and as a community, we will pray for the eternal rest of all whose names are written there.

I wish all of you a blessed week.

Your Pastor,
Msgr. Stephan Moloney

The month of November is a special time in our Catholic tradition for remembering our departed loved ones. Please join us at 3:00 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 6, for a special service of Evening Prayer and Song in remembrance of loved ones who have passed away. The service will include Psalms, choral anthems, congregational hymns, readings and reflections of remembrance, hope, and consolation, within the Church's celebration of Evening Prayer. All are welcome.

For those who cannot attend, the service will also be livestreamed at StAndrewParishLive.com.

"ETERNAL REST
GRANT UNTO THEM
O LORD AND LET
PERPETUAL LIGHT
SHINE UPON THEM"

WELCOME OUR BLESSED MOTHER INTO YOUR HOME.

All parishioners and parish families can sign up to have the Blessed Mother statue in their homes for prayers and devotion. Each week begins on Saturday at 5:30 p.m. and ends on the following Saturday at 4:30 p.m. Statue drop-off and pick-up is in the St. Andrew Chapel next to the bookcase. BUDGET	$ 31,615	$ 474,225
LAST YEAR	$ 44,620	$ 533,527

Thank you to all who are responding generously to our financial need. Your generosity is greatly appreciated! We encourage you to consider Online Giving, which is safe, secure and convenient. To sign up, visit osvhub.com/st-andrew-parish/funds or contact the business manager, Andy Naporano, anaporano@standrewparish.cc or 614-451-4290, ext. 102.

FIFTH SUNDAY THIS WEEK!

This is the time to use your Gold Envelope, or any envelope marked SVdP, to benefit those served by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Your generosity is the means by which we are able to assist people in need. At this time, rent assistance has become more expensive, and this winter promises to be more costly for electricity and natural gas.

If you prefer to make an online donation to benefit those served by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, visit the parish giving site ONLINE GIVING, osvhub.com/st-andrew-parish/funds, and choose St. Vincent de Paul from the gift information drop-down menu. You can also mail a check to the Parish Office: 1899 McCoy Road, Columbus, OH 43220. Make checks payable to St. Andrew/SVDP.

Your generosity is the means by which we are able to assist people with urgent needs. SVdP team members carefully assess each case in order to use your donations wisely. We sincerely appreciate your support.

THOUGHTS FOR OUR PARISH CHILDREN

by "Jackie," Fr. Ferguson's Cat

Hi boys and girls! My name is "Jackie," and as you know, I am Father Ferguson's cat. I'm really excited! Tuesday will be a special day called "All Saints' Day"! That's when we celebrate all the people who used to live on this Earth, but who are now in Heaven. Heaven is when we get to be with God after we finish living on this Earth, and a "saint" is anyone who is in Heaven.

All Saints' Day, which always occurs on November 1, is a chance to ask all the people in Heaven for help for us to become more holy here on Earth, as WE prepare to be in Heaven someday, too.

Just like Christmas Eve, we celebrate All Saints' Day already on the night before (the "eve"), which is October 31. That's the real meaning of Halloween. The word "Halloween" comes from the phrase, "All Hallows' Eve." "Hallow" is an old word that means holy or saintly.

It's important that we celebrate the real meaning of this special day, as well as the night before. Halloween (the eve of All Saints' Day) is supposed to be all about celebrating the life and joy and holiness of the Saints! Sadly, though, a lot of people have twisted Halloween into a night about death, evil beings, and all sorts of spooky things. On Halloween, some people even claim that black cats are haunted! Hey! I'm a black cat, and I can assure you...I am definitely NOT haunted! Yes, I've sometimes been known to do odd things (doesn't everybody walk around in circles before lying down for a nap?), but that's just because I'm a cat, not because I'm spooky!

So, this Monday and Tuesday, celebrate the true meaning of Halloween. If you go out to ask for candy in celebration, consider dressing up not as a sad, spooky ghost or evil character. Dress up as a holy and happy saint! Or dress up as a cat, the greatest of all God's good animals! And take a few moments today to pray to God, thanking Him for the saints being great role models for us on our way to Heaven! Have a "purr"-fect week!

ALL SAINTS' DAY IS TUESDAY, NOV. 1

MASS TIMES

because of the evening Mass.

Future rehearsals will be held in that same time slot on a seasonal basis. There is no obligation to join the bell choir just by attending this introductory session. Other grade levels may be added to the group in the future. If you are interested in attending the intro session, email Mr. Lortz at plortz@standrewparish.cc by Tuesday, Nov. 1 to reserve a spot. ### ADULT FAITH SERIES ABOUT MARY –

All are welcome – especially those who were unable to attend the evening presentation. This eight-week series features the insightful biblical teaching of Dr. Brant Pitre, Lectio Mary: The Bible and the Mother of God. The video program and optional (but suggested) workbook combine an in-depth biblical study with insightful questions, answers to common misconceptions about Mary, and personal reflections to lead you into a deeper love for Mary and a clearer understanding of her role in the Christian life. If you have any questions, contact Suzie Emsweller at semsweller7@gmail.com.

WE ARE CALLED TO BE STEWARDS OF GOD'S GIFTS

Christian stewards see themselves as the caretakers of God's gifts and express gratitude for these abundances through prayer, worship, offerings and actions. Stewardship is a way of thanking God for our blessings as we return a portion of the many gifts we have been given by God. One way to fulfill our responsibility as entrusted stewards is through planned giving.

A planned gift is intended to be used in the future. It's a commitment made during your lifetime that can support organizations like St. Andrew Parish when you no longer need your assets. Along with current benefits, like tax advantages, planned giving allows you to make your intentions known (usually through financial or estate planning) today for when God calls you home.

Along with providing for your children and loved ones, have you considered a planned gift to St. Andrew Parish? To start a conversation, please contact Christy Steffy at The Catholic Foundation, 614-443-8893, ext. 110, or csteffy@catholic-foundation.org.

VETERANS OF ST. ANDREW PARISH: The students and staff of St. Andrew School would like to invite you to a school assembly on Friday, Nov. 11 at 1:50 p.m. in the gymnasium. Please RSVP to Chris Woodland, Enrichment teacher, at cwoodlan@cdeeducation.org by November 9 if you would like to participate. Those attending should enter at the school main entrance on Reed Road at 1:30 p.m., where students will be available to escort you to the gym. The program should last about 40 minutes.

Dear Parishioners,

I am pleased to present to you the summary Parish Financial Report for fiscal year 2021-2022.

In the last 2 1/2 years, there have been many changes and interruptions to our normal way of life, much of it because of the COVID-19 pandemic, but also other factors. One of the things affected was the presentation of this annual financial report to the parish, which did not occur last year. Although the current financial report only covers the 2021-2022 fiscal year (ending June 30, 2022), my comments in this letter are broader than that.

You will recall that in 2020, the church was shut down for six weeks, and the Sunday Mass obligation was dispensed for more than a year. School was closed and switched to remote learning – all of us were “working from home” and quickly learning how to “ZOOM.” At that time, I resolved that I did not want any parish employees to lose their jobs because of layoffs, even though they were not coming to work in person. I am happy to say that no one was “let go.” We applied for, and received, a PPP loan from the federal government, which was used for its intended purpose – to keep people employed. The loan was ultimately forgiven.

During the shutdown, we began to livestream Mass so people could continue to connect to our Sunday worship, even if remote. Though the obligation to attend Mass was reinstated in June 2021, Mass attendance has remained much lower than anticipated. We canceled our parish festival in 2020, and again in 2021. During this time, there were other interruptions not related to the pandemic: changes in personnel; changes to our office computer system, database and accounting software; and changes to our Parish Finance Council.

Regardless of all of that, one thing remained relatively constant: the financial support of St. Andrew parishioners to the parish! For the most part, parishioners continued their support through regular contributions to the offertory with many choosing to give online via ONLINE GIVING, a convenient web-based platform we provide to parishioners that enables safe, consistent offertory giving.

The financial Report for 2021-2022 shows us that St. Andrew Parish remains reasonably healthy. While offertory is down from the pre-pandemic levels (as already noted), it remains fairly stable. We lowered our expectations for the offertory when we made the budget, and our actual offertory revenue fell short of our budget. Also, you may recall that we had to replace the chiller in the church, which was a large expense. We used our reserves to pay for this. I am hopeful we will be able to replenish those reserves soon. From an operations standpoint, we ended the year “in the black,” with a positive net operating revenue figure, but we have not yet recovered to our former strength. Meanwhile, increased costs and inflation add pressure to our operations.

I share this financial report with you so that all parishioners may know where we stand from a financial standpoint. I thank you all for your support for St. Andrew Parish.

Your Pastor,

Msgr. Stephan Moloney

Why God is calling His Church to a Eucharistic Revival?

The Bishops of the United States have initiated a three-year grassroots revival of devotion and belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, which kicked off on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi 2022. The three years will culminate in the 2024 National Eucharistic Congress, the first in the United States in almost fifty years.

St. Andrew Parish is honored to welcome Tim Glemkowski, the newly appointed executive director of the 2024 National Eucharistic Congress. We encourage all parishioners and guests to join us in November when Mr. Glemkowski will share his unique insights surrounding this significant national revival intended to unify and strengthen the Church.

Light Refreshments and desserts will be available for those who attend.

ABOUT ALL SAINTS' DAY

Celebrated on November 1, All Saints' Day is a solemn Holy Day of the Catholic Church. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven.

Although millions, or even billions of people may already be saints, All Saints' Day observances tend to focus on known saints – those recognized in the canon of the saints by the Catholic Church.

Generally, All Saints' Day is a Catholic Holy Day of Obligation, meaning all Catholics are required to attend Mass on that day, unless they have an excellent excuse, such as serious illness.

All Saints' Day was formally started by Pope Boniface IV, who consecrated the Pantheon at Rome to the Virgin Mary and all the Martyrs on May 13 in 609 AD. Boniface IV also established All Souls' Day, which follows All Saints.

The Holy Day was eventually established on November 1 by Pope Gregory III in the mid-eighth century as a day dedicated to the saints and their relics. The May 13 celebration was subsequently abandoned.

Following the establishment of the Frankish Empire, and following the reign of Charlemagne, the Holy Day, which was already celebrated on November 1, became a Holy Day of Obligation by decree of Pope Gregory IV and Louis the Pious, who was king over a portion of Charlemagne's former empire.

Following the Protestant Reformation, many Protestants retained the Holy Day, although they dismissed the need to pray for the dead. Instead, the day has been used to commemorate those who have recently died, usually in the past year, and to remember the examples of those who lived holy lives. The Catholic practice however, celebrates all those who have entered heaven, including saints who are recognized by the Church and those who are not.

Holy Day customs vary around the world. In the United States, the day before All Saints' Day is Halloween and is usually celebrated by dressing in costumes. Children go door-to-door, trick-or-treating. The holiday has lost much of its connection to its religious origins.

Although nearly everyone celebrates Halloween for the fun of the secular holiday, the following religious solemnity, is not widely practiced or acknowledged by most Americans unless they are Catholic.

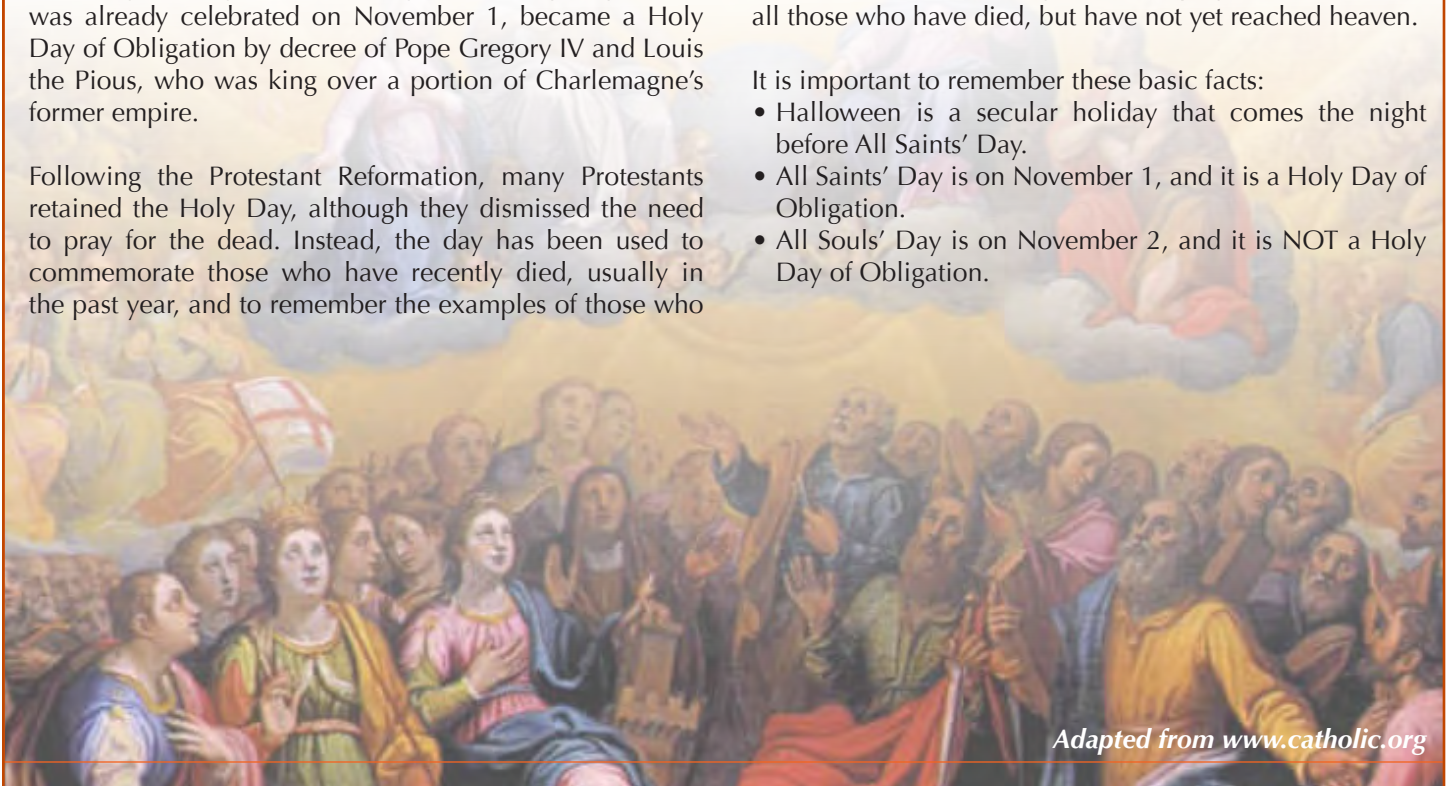

In other countries, such as Portugal, Spain and Mexico, traditional practices include performance of the play, "Don Juan Tenorio" and offerings made to the dead. All Saints' Day occurs on the same day as the Mexican "Díe de los Inocentes" a day dedicated to deceased children.

Across much of Europe, the day is commemorated with offerings of flowers left on the graves of the dead. In Eastern Europe, candles are lit on graves instead of offerings of flowers.

These celebrations often blur the distinction between All Saints' Day, which is properly dedicated to those who are in heaven, and All Souls' Day, on which prayers are offered for all those who have died, but have not yet reached heaven.

It is important to remember these basic facts:

- Halloween is a secular holiday that comes the night before All Saints' Day.
- All Saints' Day is on November 1, and it is a Holy Day of Obligation.
- All Souls' Day is on November 2, and it is NOT a Holy Day of Obligation.
